Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 23rd July 1874.

Read the following papers:—

No. 165. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 5th January 1872, No. 29.

Read Collectors' replies to G.O., No. 1120, dated 15th August 1871, and to Official Memorandum, No. 1395, dated 20th October 1871.

Read again G.O., No. 84, dated 20th January 1871.

Read also endorsement of Government, dated 20th March 1871, on letter from Government Solicitor, dated 22nd February 1871, No. 51, on subject of description of belts and badges to be worn by all Peons in Government employ.

In paragraph 6 of the last Government Order quoted above, the Board were directed, in communication with the Advocate-General, to prepare and submit to Government, for the purpose of being published in the Official Gazette, an order prescribing the description of belts and badges to be worn by all Peons in the service of Government, and the manner of wearing the same.

2. The Board find that the badges and belts now in use are of every possible shape and description, and they are therefore of opinion that it is impossible to insist on immediate conformity to any given pattern except at an excessive cost. Strict orders should of course be issued that hereafter no badges or belts should be made except of the patterns prescribed in the Board's Circular Order of 28th November 1859, and of such other patterns as may be found necessary for departments not specified therein.

3. It follows from the above that it is useless to attempt to prescribe any distinguishing badge for all departments of the Government service, at any rate at present; and even if it were possible to select shapes of badges to be used exclusively by Government Peons, the Board consider that no such distinction (minute as it must be) in the shape would afford any guarantee against fraud and deception in the case of an ignorant and illiterate peasantry, always ready to see any one having even the semblance of authority.

4. They resolve therefore to suggest that the belts of all Peons in the Government service be of scarlet* cloth, and that
* On a rough estimate the Board believe this will cost something under 20,000 Rupees for all departments. scarlet be declared to be the Government color; so that the wearing of a belt of that color by any private Peon shall be prima facie evidence of an offence under Section 171 of the Indian Penal Code. All Government Peons should further have the Royal Arms embossed separately in silver or brass, above the badge (unless they are already engraved on the badges themselves, as is the case with those in use in the Paper Currency Department).

5. These Proceedings will be forwarded to the Government Solicitor, and he will be requested to consult the Advocate-General as to the form in which proclamation should be made so as to render persons going contrary to it liable to conviction under Section 171, Indian Penal Code, and to frame such proclamation embodying the proposals made above for submission to Government.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 10th February 1872.
No. 166. • From H. G. PRICHARD, Esq., Government Solicitor, to J. B. PENNINGTON, Esq., Sub-Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Madras, 5th February 1872, No. 47.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 5th instant, No. 29, requesting me to consult the Acting Advocate-General as to the form in which proclamation should be made relative to the description of belts and badges to be worn by all Peons in the employment of Government, and the manner of wearing them.

2. I submitted the matter for the consideration of the Acting Advocate-General, and

3. I now forward, herewith, a copy of his observation and the form of proclamation therein referred to.

Submitted to Government in continuation of Proceedings, No. 29, dated 5th January 1872.

2. The Board have merely added the words "or engraved" after "embossed."

No. 167. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 28th April 1874, No. 984.
Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 5th March 1874, No. 756, Military Department:—

ABSTRACT.—Transferring to the Board of Revenue, papers received from certain officers regarding belts and badges worn by Peons, etc.

The papers received with the above Proceedings will be submitted to Government in continuation of Board's Proceedings, dated 5th January 1872, No. 29.

2. The Controller of Military Accounts reports that the belts worn by the Peons of the department are numbered, but not distinguished by any badge.

3. The Adjutant-General, Quarter-Master General, and Brigade-Major state that there are no Peons on their establishments. The Peons in the office of the Surgeon-General, British Medical Service, have not been supplied with belts or badges, whilst those in the establishment of the Surgeon-General, Indian Medical Department, wear belts without badges.

4. The Judge Advocate-General, Superintendent of Army Clothing, Remount Agent, Superintendent of Family Pensions, and Commissary-General furnish sketches of the badges in use. The patterns in use in the Commissariat Department are very various.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 23rd July 1874.

No. 168. ORDER THEREON, 23rd July 1874, No. 1351.

These papers relate to the description of belts and badges to be worn by all Peons in Government employ.

2. The Board of Revenue, who have had the subject under their consideration, are of opinion that no badges or belts should be made except of the patterns prescribed in their Circular* Order of 28th November 1859, and of such other patterns as may be found necessary for departments not specified therein; and they suggest—

(a.) That the belts of all Peons in the Government service shall be of scarlet cloth.

(b.) That all Government Peons shall have the Royal Arms embossed separately in silver or brass, above the badge (unless they are already engraved on the badges themselves, as is the case with those in use in the Paper Currency Department).

3. His Excellency the Governor in Council approves and sanctions the Board's suggestions, but as it would be impracticable to arrange for the supply, at once, of scarlet cloth belts and badges embossed with the Royal Arms, to all Peons in the Government service throughout the Presidency, the Governor in Council directs that a beginning be made at the Presidency by the Heads of the various Departments.

4. The scarlet cloth for the belts may be obtained, on indent, from the Clothing Department, and badges of the prescribed pattern from the Public Works Stores Department.

5. The charge for the belts and badges will be included in the Contingent Bill of each Department.

6. The Honorable the Judges of the High Court, the Military and Public Works Departments, and the Board of Revenue will be requested to instruct all officers subordinate to them, that whenever new belts and badges are needed they shall be made up of the cloth and pattern now approved and sanctioned.

7. The publication of the Notification received with the Board's Proceedings, dated the 10th February 1872, will be deferred for the present.

N. 84. Judicial.

Consequent on a Memorial presented by Messrs Richmond & Co of Tellicherry appealing against an Order of the Sub Collector and Joint Magistrate of Malabar forbidding the use of belts over the shoulders by peons in the employment of private firms, &c, the Govt in their Order dated the 20th January 1871, resolved, in order to obviate all doubt on the subject hereafter, to direct the Board of Revenue to prepare and submit, in communication with the Advocate General, for publication in the official Gazette

22/2/72

1971
Gazette, an Order prescribing the description of belts and badges to be worn by all persons in the employment of Govt, and the manner of wearing the same; and they were of opinion that, after the publication of such an Order, any person wearing the garb of a Govt person would be liable to prosecution, and it would rest with the Magistrate trying the case to determine whether an offence against Section 171 of the Penal Code had been committed or not.

2. On the 12th July 1871, the Board requested that orders might be issued to Heads of all Departments to furnish them with returns similar to those called for from Collectors in Board's Circular

Pres. of 15th August 1871
N^o 1120.

On a rough estimate the Board believed this would cost something under Rs 20,000 for all Departments.

Circular Memorandum, No 517 of 1871. Govt ordered accordingly.

3. On the 5th January 1872 the Board in their Proceedings N^o 29, stated that they found the badges and belts in use to be of every possible shape and description, and that it was impossible to insist on immediate conformity to any given pattern except at an excessive cost. They however suggested that the belts of all persons in the Govt service should be of scarlet cloth, and that scarlet should be declared to be the Govt colour; so that the wearing of a belt of that colour by any private person shall be prima facie evidence of an offence under under Section 171 of the Indian Penal Code. All Govt. persons should further have the Royal arms embossed separately in silver or brass, above the badge (unless they were already engraved on the badges themselves, as is the case with those in use in the Paper-murrency Deptt.).

The Board's Proceedings were communicated to the Advocate General, and he was asked to frame a Notification embodying the foregoing proposals.

4. The late Advocate General, Mr. J. D. Mayne, accordingly submitted a Notification, and suggested that it should be inserted in the Fort St. George and District Gazettes, and posted

Notification

"It is hereby notified by authority of the Govt. of Madras that all belts worn by persons or other public servants under the Madras Govt. will be of scarlet colour, & that such belts will bear a badge having the Royal Arms of H. M. Queen Victoria embossed or engraved thereon. Any person who wears a belt of the same colour as the Govt. belt, or a badge resembling the Govt. badge will be liable to prosecution under s. 171 of the Indian Penal Code. Any person who directs or permits any person in his employment employment to wear such a belt or badge will be liable to punishment as an abettor of the above offence.

posted up in the Vernacular languages of each District on the doors and Canteeneries. He did not, however, think that the Govt. could by any proclamation monopolise to themselves the use of any particular colour of belt, if the whole appearance of the belt used by private individuals was unlike that of the Govt. belt; and he added further, that "on each prosecution the intention or knowledge required by Section 171 (of the Penal Code) will have to be made out as a fact, and in default thereof the prosecution will fail."

Vide Memo. of 8th March 1872, No. 74.

5. After the receipt of these papers, the Board of of Revenue were requested to furnish a statement of the number of, and the approximate cost of making up belts of scarlet cloth and also the cost of embossing the Royal Arms above the badge of every foot person.

6. This they have not yet done, but with their Proceedings dated 28th April 1874, No 984, they submit the papers transferred to them by the Military Department, and give the substance of the report of the various heads of offices in that Department.

7. The question, therefore, is not, in a financial point of view, ripe for disposal. Even if it were it would be impossible impossible to furnish the foot persons, throughout the Presidency, with belts and badges embossed as suggested by the Board at once, but a beginning might be made in the offices of the Presidency, and Orders to that effect may be passed now if the foot approve the suggestions made by the Board.

8. The issue of the notification framed by the late Advocate General, will have to be deferred until the belts and badges required for all the Districts in the Provinces are issued.
