25th July 1874.*

No. 187. Proceedings of Government, 25th July 1874, No. 1366.

The Governor in Council has had it under his notice that the establishment at the Town Court of the Presidency Magistracy is insufficient. The total pay is Rupees 429-8-0, against Rupees 657-0-11 at the Egmore Court, which has probably much less pressure of work.

2. He desires, therefore, that the Magistrates of the two Courts will confer together on the subject, and report what changes and reductions can be carried out at Egmore, to supplement what is wanting at the Town Court.
