Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 11th March 1874.

No. 78. Read the following letter from H. WIGRAM, Esq., Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate Side, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 13th February 1874, No. 319:—

I am directed by the Chief Justice to submit, for the approval of the Government, the arrangements which he proposes to make during my temporary absence on furlough.

2. The present seems a favourable opportunity for effecting, if only experimentally, some changes in the higher offices of the Registrar's Department, and in the direction of a fusion of the separate establishments.

3. There is at present a Registrar on the Appellate side whose fixed salary is Rupees 1,600 per mensem. There is also a Registrar on the Original side the present incumbent of which office draws a salary of 2,000 Rupees per mensem; but the salary of this office is on the occasion of a permanent vacancy to be reduced to 1,500 Rupees per mensem. The establishments under each of these officers is distinct. In the Chief Justice's opinion inconvenience arises from the present marked division of offices and establishments in the Original and Appellate jurisdictions. With a view to effect a union of these offices and establishments, the Chief Justice proposes to appoint Mr. Ritchie, Registrar of the High Court (on its Original and Appellate sides), and to assign to him in addition to certain duties and Taxing Officer, a portion of the duties now appertaining to the Registrar on the Appellate side.

4. On the second or Deputy Registrar, whom the Chief Justice proposes to appoint, would devolve the remaining portion of the duties now appertaining to the Registrar on the Appellate side, together with the immediate supervision and control of the united establishment of the Court; and for this appointment the Chief Justice desires to nominate Mr. Weir, lately a Deputy Registrar of the Court. The Chief Justice desires me to state that he proposes this as a temporary arrangement only during my absence on furlough, and that he proposes to assign to Mr. Weir the full salary to which he would be entitled were he in the ordinary course appointed to act as Registrar of the High Court on its Appellate side. In consideration of the additional duties devolving on Mr. Ritchie as Registrar of the High Court and of his long service in the Court, the Chief Justice would further propose to assign to him an additional allowance of Rupees 200 during such time as the proposed arrangement continues. There will, it is believed, be a saving to this extent to Government after deducting from the net salary of my appointment my absence allowance and the deputation allowance claimable by Mr. Weir.

5. In conclusion, I am to state that, in the event of any delay arising in the disposal of the proposition now submitted, the Chief Justice desires to appoint Mr. Weir to act pro tempore as Registrar of the High Court on its Appellate side from the date of my departure on furlough; such appointment to be subject to any changes that may be determined on hereafter.
