In paragraph 2 of their Order, dated 4th January 1875, No. 15, the Government directed the Board to arrange with all Heads of other Departments for the adoption of a distinctive color for the belts of their peons and to report the arrangements made.

2. The letters above recorded are the replies to the Circulars issued in accordance with those instructions, and the colors selected for each Department are shown below:—

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 3rd September 1875.

Department.	Color.
Secretariat	Red.
Revenue Department... ..	Dark blue with red edging.
Public Works Department... ..	Green.
Judicial Department... ..	Buff with red edging.
Ordnance Department	Dark blue edged with scarlet.
Judge Advocate-General's Department	Dark blue edged with buff.
Inspector-General of Jails... ..	Scarlet edged with blue.
Ecclesiastical Department... ..	Claret.
Commissariat	Red edged with green.
Controller of Military Accounts	Aurora cloth edged with green.
Accountant-General	Scarlet edged with yellow.
Indian Medical Department	Red edged with black.
Educational Department	Orange edged with dark blue.
Inspector-General of Registration	Buff with red edging (the Judicial belt).
Revenue Survey Department	Dark blue with red edging (the Revenue belt).
Revenue Settlement Department
Marine Department	Red edged with blue.
Forest Department	Office peons, the ordinary Revenue belt.
	Forest taluq peons Cheetah skins.
	Forest guards, coats of an uniform pattern with a leather belt round the waist having the brass badge in the centre.
Telegraph Department	Brown leather belts supplied from Stores in Calcutta.
Postmaster-General	Question referred to the Director-General.

3. The peons of the Survey and Settlement Departments now wear the Revenue belt, and the Heads of those Departments request that no alteration be made. The Inspector-General of Registration states that, as his Department is considered to be a branch of the Judicial Department, the distinctive color of the latter will answer for the former also. The Heads of the Ordnance and Marine Departments might substitute a light for a dark blue to distinguish their peons from those of the Revenue and Jail Departments respectively. The Adjutant-General and Quartermaster-General state that no peons are attached to their Departments.
