High Court—Letters Patent, &c.

No. 100. Read the following letter from J. SHAW, Esq., Registrar of the High Court, Madras, Original Side, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 7th September 1875.

I have the honor, by direction of the Chief Justice, to request that Government will be good enough to procure from the India Office, for the use of the High Court, a copy of the Letters Patent or Commission to the Chief Justice of the late Supreme Court upon which the Civil and Maritime Jurisdiction of the High Court as a Court of Vice-Admiralty depends.

2. We have the original Commission directed to Sir Thomas Strange, and dated the 21st January 1808, but a subsequent Commission, the date of which I have not been able to ascertain, but which was probably found necessary in consequence of the alterations made in the law by the Statutes 2, William IV. C. 51, and 3 and 4 William IV. C. 41, was lost about ten years ago, and there does not appear to be any copy of it in Madras to which reference could be made in case of any question arising as to the extent of the High Court's Civil and Maritime Jurisdiction.

No. 101. ORDER THEREON, 14th September 1875, No. 2005.

The Secretary of State will be requested to furnish copy of the Letters Patent or Commission adverted to.
