To
The Hon. W. Huddleston
Chief Secretary

Honourable Sir,

As you were once pleased to appoint me to act as one of the Town Police Magistrates, I venture to bring myself to your notice now that Mr Campbell has obtained privilege leave for 3 months. I respectfully beg leave to annex a copy of Mr Vans-Agnew's letter in which he recorded his opinion of me when I was posted to Madras from the Nellore District.

I beg to remain
Hon. Sir,
Your most Obedt. Servt.
[illegible]
Asst. Dy. Collr. Madras

Nellore
6th March 1875.

My dear Sir,

As it is uncertain whether you will return to this Dist. it may be as well that I should now place in your hands a record of the high opinion I entertain of the public service you have rendered during the past 4½ years under me.

You have thoroughly deserved the confidence I have always reposed in you, & no Collector can have a more upright, willing & efficient assistant than

Mr Campbell was granted 3 mos priv. leave for 3 months from or after 9th June 1876 — Gazette 16 May 1876 —

Town Police Court

Madras 24th May 1876

My dear Mr Huddleston

My privilege leave for three months was gazetted on the 16th and I expected last night's Gazette to have contained the appointment of some one to fill the vacant seat in the Magistracy but as no appointment appeared I write a line to know if I am at liberty to avail myself of the leave by handing over charge to my Colleague Mr Sreenavasa Row and let him, with such aid as Mr Mahomed Yusuff can quite consistently with his own duties, carry on the duties of this Court.

till my return or until further orders. I do not wish to remain here at furthest beyond the 6th June.

Yours faithfully
Ch. Campbell
