GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

6th September 1878, No. 1817.

Law Officers.

Read the following paper:—

No. 40. From C. BERNARD, Esq., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, (Judicial,) to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Simla, 16th August 1878, Circular No. 18-1079.

According to the practice which has hitherto prevailed, Government Law Officers have been remunerated under such terms as were settled with them in each case, for transacting the business of both the Supreme and Local Governments. A case, however, has recently arisen where it appeared doubtful whether a particular Law Officer had, under the terms of his original agreement, engaged to transact business for the Supreme Government, as well as the Local Government. If such a doubt still exists in the case of any Law Officer in the Madras Presidency, I am to request that early opportunity should be taken to remove such doubt by revising the agreement or terms of appointment on which such Law Officer holds his employment under Government. The revised terms should clearly state that the remuneration allowed to Government Law Officers is for transacting Government business of all kinds and in all departments, whether such Departments are under the Supreme or under any of the Local Governments.

2. These orders are not intended to have retrospective effect.

No. 41. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, dated Ootacamund, 7th September 1878, No. 1817.

In reply to your Circular, No. 18-1079, Judicial, of 16th August, I have the honor to state that no doubt exists in the case of any Law Officer in this Presidency as to his liability to transact Government business of all kinds and in all departments, Imperial or otherwise.

Acting Chief Secretary.

SIMLA, the 16 August 1878.

SIR,

ACCORDING to the practice which has hitherto prevailed, Government Law Officers have been remunerated under such terms as were settled with them in each case, for transacting the business of both the Supreme and Local Governments. A case, however, has recently arisen where it appeared doubtful whether a particular Law Officer had, under the terms of his original agreement, engaged to transact business for the Supreme Government, as well as the Local Government. If such a doubt still exists in the case of any Law Officer in the Madras Presidency, I am to request that early opportunity should be taken to remove such doubt by revising the agreement or terms of appointment on which such Law Officer holds his employment under Government. The revised terms should clearly state that the remuneration allowed to Government Law Officers is for transacting Government business of all kinds and in all Departments, whether such Departments are under the Supreme or under any of the Local Governments.

2. These orders are not intended to have retrospective effect.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

C Bernard

Offg. Secretary to the Govt. of India.
