2. Your Government state, however, that Sir H. Ricketts in his report on civil salaries in India expressed an opinion that the salary of the Agent in Ganjam should be reduced from Rupees 34,000 to Rupees 30,000 per annum, and that in March 1863 you invited the Government of Madras to consider, on the occurrence of a vacancy, whether the pay of the Agent in Ganjam should not be reduced to Rupees 2,333½, the pay of the Agent of Vizagapatam, and you add that the Local Government has not hitherto given any effect to this suggestion.

3. You now recommend, in modification of the proposal of the Madras Government, that the pay of each of the Agents at Ganjam and Vizagapatam may be fixed for the future at Rupees 2,500 a-month.

4. Your proposition, which will effect a saving of Rupees 2,000 per annum, is sanctioned.
