Police—Leave Rules.

Read the following papers:—

No. 32. From Colonel W. S. DREVER, C.S.I., Acting Inspector-General of Police, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 6th January 1879, No. 2.

In forwarding the enclosed Memorial from Mr. F. T. Bagshawe, Assistant Superintendent of Police, and Acting Superintendent in Jeypore, I have the honor to observe that I view with the greatest apprehension the eventual result of the exclusion of the superior European Officers of this Department from the advantages of the new leave rules. In no department of the Government service is exposure more constant and consequent risk to health greater than in the Police.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

To

THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

Memorial of Mr. FRANK THEODORE BAGSHAWE, Acting Superintendent of Police, Jeypur District, Madras Presidency.

HUMBLY SHEWETH,—That your petitioner is an Uncovenanted Assistant Superintendent (Acting Superintendent) of Police in the Madras Presidency, and of purely European extraction and birth.

He served for some years as an Officer in the Royal Navy, and copy of his last ship's service certificate (marked A) is attached. He left the Navy to compete for an appointment in the Indian Civil Service, but failing, came out to India, and was appointed an Assistant Superintendent of Revenue Survey in May 1869, and he served in that department till May 1876, when he got transferred to the Madras Police as an Assistant Superintendent, which rank he now holds.

Under the old Uncovenanted Leave Rules (framed originally for natives of India only) your petitioner has to serve ten years before he can take furlough, and then obtains only one year.

After serving a further eight years he may take another year's furlough. He may also in his whole service take leave twice on medical certificate beyond India, giving an aggregate of four years' leave in thirty-one years' service.

The hardship of these rules on a European Officer, situated as your petitioner is, need scarcely be pointed out to your Lordship; and he now prays that he may be admitted as a special case to the benefit of the more favorable leave rules, contained in the Despatch from the Secretary of State, No. 451, dated the 6th December 1871, on the following grounds:—

(1) That on the 3rd January 1872 he held substantively the post of Assistant Superintendent of Revenue Survey (one of the offices detailed in Schedule A).

(2) That though his salary on the 10th February 1876 did not amount to Rupees 6,000 per annum, but only to Rupees 5,100, petitioner had for eighteen months previous to that date been performing the duties of a 1st-Class Assistant Superintendent of Survey (salary Rs. 6,600 per annum) without receiving any extra remuneration, owing to the stagnation of promotion in that department.

(3) That owing to petitioner's absence on leave from India his name was not entered on the list of officers applying for admission to the new rules which was submitted to the Secretary of State and sanctioned in Despatch, No. 451, dated 6th December 1871.

(4) That the appointment of Assistant Superintendent of Police in Madras, which the petitioner has the honor of now holding, is an office usually held by Commissioned Officers of the Army, and as such is included in Schedule A.

(5) That the appointment of Assistant Superintendent in the Madras Police does not correspond to the appointment bearing the same title in the other Presidencies, for it carries with it similar, if not more onerous, duties than those of a Superintendent of the middle or lower grades in Bengal and elsewhere, and the emoluments are similar.

(6) That officers holding appointments of equivalent or less responsibility and emoluments in the Forests, Telegraph, and Survey Departments, have all been admitted to the benefit of the more favorable rules.

(7) That, under the Government of India, the Police service is (not excepting the Forest and Survey Departments) the most trying in point of health, from the arduous and never-ending nature of the work, from the risks of cholera, jungle-fever, and other diseases, and from the lonely and isolated life, which has often to be led for years; and petitioner, therefore, humbly submits that European gazetted Officers of Police should be treated with peculiar consideration with reference to sick and furlough leave.

(8) The Madras Police was originally officered by special selection from amongst the smartest Officers of the Madras Army, and petitioner ventures to attach a list (marked B) showing the names, services, and leave taken by those officers, by which it appears that for about every four years' service an average of one year's leave has had to be granted by Government. Such having been the case with these selected officers your petitioner humbly submits that the present European Uncovenanted Officers can scarcely perform the same arduous duties with less leave. Hoping that these circumstances and his hard case may meet with your Lordship's favorable consideration, your petitioner begs to subscribe himself, your Lordship's most humble and obedient servant.
