GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

25th November 1880, No. 2763.

Coroner of Madras.

Read the following paper:—

No. 79. From the Hon. C. GRANT, Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home, Revenue, and Agricultural Department (Judicial), to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Simla, 30th October 1880, No. 1172.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 2162, dated the 6th ultimo, on the subject of the law to be passed by the Legislative Council of the Governor-General for the purposes of reducing the territorial jurisdiction of the Coroner of Madras, and the amendment, by the Madras Legislative Council, of Section 9 of Madras Act VIII of 1867.

2. In reply, I am to say that on further consideration it has been decided that provision shall also be made in the proposed law to be passed by the Legislative Council of the Governor-General empowering the Police, within the area withdrawn from the Coroner's jurisdiction, to inquire into sudden and unnatural deaths, and with this object Section 9 of Madras Act VIII of 1867 will be repealed and re-enacted. No action need therefore be taken by the local Legislative Council in view to amending Section 9 of the Madras Act.

3. As regards Section 123 of the Criminal Procedure Code, which has been omitted from paragraph 1 of Section 9 of Madras Act VIII of 1867, as it appears in the Madras Code, I am to say that the opportunity will be taken to insert it when the section is re-enacted as stated above.

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of 21st, dated the 6th ultimo on the subject of the law to be passed by the Legislative Council of the Governor General for the purposes of reducing the jurisdiction of the Madras, and the amendment by the Madras Legislative Council of section 9 of Madras Act in 1887.

In reply, I am to say that on further consideration it has been decided that provision shall also be made in the proposed law to be passed by the Legislative Council of the Governor General empowering the Ruler, within the area within from the Ruler's jurisdiction, to acquire and surrender

sudden and unnatural deaths and with this object section 9 of Madras Act VIII of 1867 will be repealed and re-enacted. No action need therefore be taken by the Local Legislative Council in view to amending section 9 of the Madras Act.

3. As regards section 123 of the Criminal Procedure Code which has been omitted from para: 1 of section 9 of Madras Act VIII of 1867 as it appears in the Madras Code,
I am to say that the opportunity will be taken
