GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

20th January 1881, No. 113.

Registration.

Read the following paper:—

No. 81. From G. HAMNETT, Esq., Inspector-General of Registration, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 23rd December 1880, No. 467.

I have the honor to submit the marginally-noted correspondence with the Accountant-General for the favorable consideration of the Government.

From Registrar of North Arcot, dated 23rd November 1880, No. 129.

To Registrar of North Arcot, dated 25th November 1880, No. 1323.

To the Accountant-General, dated 25th November 1880, No. 423.

From the Accountant-General, dated 21st December 1880, No. 4827.

Proceedings of Government, dated 24th February 1875, No. 429.

2. When the appointments of Registrars were held chiefly by Deputy Collectors, it was usual, when those officers proceeded on tours of inspection, for some officer of the Collector's establishment to officiate as Registrar, and to receive therefor the commission of 20 per cent. allowed to the Registrar.

3. Since the appointment of Special Registrars the practice has been to depute one of the Special Sub Registrars to officiate for the Registrar during his absence on tour of inspection. The arrangement, though satisfactory in every way, deprives, in some cases, the officer deputed of the full amount of commission which he is entitled to receive in his own office. This was never intended; and I request, therefore, that the sanction of Government may be obtained to the disbursement to a Special Sub Registrar, when deputed to officiate for the Registrar during his absence on duty, the same commission as he drew in his own office, when it exceeds that of the Registrar; and that the sanction may have retrospective effect in the case of the Sub Registrar of Vellore, who is a loser by officiating for his superior officer.

No. 82. ORDER THEREON, 20th January 1881, No. 113.

A Special Sub Registrar, officiating at another station for a Registrar absent on a tour of inspection duty, drawing less commission than is drawn in his own office during the period of deputation, will be entitled to receive so much of the commission of the Sub Registry office as will make up his total commission to what he would have received if not so deputed, the balance only in that event going to the officer acting for him as Sub Registrar.

2. This order will have retrospective effect in the case of the Sub Registrar of Vellore reported in the papers recorded above.

is admissible to a "Labording" officer empowered to dispose of routine business while his superior is on tour; a sub Reg. therefore deputed in the circumstances stated receives no Ag. Allowance, it would be hard to put him in a worse position by drawing his commo. It seems fairest therefore to curtail the emoluments of the official acting for the Sub Registrar; that official is generally the taluk Sheridar or the Head Clerk of the Regn. Office, doing the work in addition to their ordinary duties: & although under the rule they may draw less emoluments for acting than before they will not
