GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

21st January 1881, No. 118.

Rampa Country.

Read the following paper :—

No. 87. From W. S. FOSTER, Esq., Government Agent, Godavari, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Cocanada, 20th May 1880, No. 45.

I have the honor to forward herewith the proposals of Mr. Johnson, the Principal Assistant Agent, for the settlement of the Kakur Mutta in Rampa referred to in paragraph 6 of my letter of the 30th March 1880, No. 20.

2. The Muttadar Pullala Virappa Reddi is a proclaimed rebel; he is still out in fituri, but it is believed he is not likely to come back to Rampa.

3. Mr. Johnson proposes to settle with the Muttadar's half-brother Karri Reddi, and I recommend the proposal for approval.

4. The mutta has paid for several years Rs. 25 per annum, but Mr. Sullivan proposed to enhance it by 15 rupees. So Mr. Johnson fixes Rs. 40. Karri Reddi is afraid he would not be able to pay that sum and offers to do 20 rupees' worth of work on the roads, paying the remainder, Rs. 20, in cash. I have no objection to this, but I am not sure that it is advisable to introduce this novel mode of paying revenue.

5. Of the twenty-six muttas twenty were settled by Mr. Sullivan, and proposals have since been sent up for four muttas on the dates as per margin, and this relates to the fifth, Kakur. There remain, Chavala, which, as Mr. Johnson remarks, is entirely depopulated and may be left unsettled till the country quiets down.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

Settlement Memorandum of Kakur Mutta.

This mutta was held at the time of Mr. Prendergast's Settlement (1848) by Pallala Chinna Reddi; his kattubadi was then fixed at Rs. 25 per annum.

At the commencement of this fituri the Muttadar was a grandson of the said Chinna Reddi named Pallala Buriki (also known as Veerappa) Reddi. This man was one of the original leaders of the fituri, and a reward of Rs. 500 was offered for his arrest. He is still at large in company with Karem Tamman Dora; they are reported to have gone to Bustar and are not, in my opinion, likely ever to return to Rampa.

The mutta consists of five villages—

1. Kakur.
2. Pulioota.
3. Muttsalawada.
4. Eluwada.
5. Pentanakota.

The Munsudbar's accounts show two other villages said to be deserted :—

Marrikota.
Buragakota.

Of these no trace now exists.

The heir of the proclaimed Muttadar, Buriki Reddi, is his half-brother Pallala Karri Reddi. He has not taken any part in the fituri, and I recommend the grant of a sanad to him. The kattubadi may be raised to Rs. 40 as proposed by Mr. Sullivan, inclusive of toddy-tax. This it will be hard for the ryots to pay for a year or two, but it need not press heavily on them if a part of it is taken out in labor on the roads as proposed by Karri Reddi in his statement before me, which is herewith forwarded. This can be easily arranged by the Special Assistant Agent.

(Signed) E. O. JOHNSON,
Principal Assistant Agent.

No. 88. ORDER THEREON, 21st January 1881, No. 118.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council approves the proposed settlement of the Kakur Mutta with Pallala Karri Reddi; the Muttadar to pay a kattubadi, inclusive of toddy-tax, of Rs. 40.

2. In preference to exacting half the tribute in road-making as recommended by Mr. Johnson, the Government directs, in view of the present unsettled state of the country, that for the first year only Rs. 20 of the kattubadi be demanded, with an additional Rs. 2 every successive year till the maximum of Rs. 40 be reached.

3. The usual sanad will be prepared by the Agent and conferred on the Muttadar.

" Formerly we lived at Timravasa: therefore we are sometimes called Timravasa -

I have 3 sons - Surran Reddi. who lives in Trampilli. Bal Reddi & Rami Reddi - (the latter when small was called Chupati Reddi. That name is ^{now} completely forgotten).

Our mootahdar's name is Baribi Reddi. He is sometimes called Latchi Reddi.

This is untrue
as he is generally known as Venappa

Since the future began.
(Told that Ambl Reddi said his son Bal Reddi had attended K. K. Reddi in the future)
That is not true. I will swear by the Sun.
The only respectable people in the mootahs are the Reddi's relations - His Cousin Soni Reddi Baribi Reddi has no full brother. he has a 1/2 brother born of an outside woman (a not a wife)
In the hill country such a one would be considered his father's property. There are two such half brothers. Eari Reddi a well grown boy who is married and a younger one. Chember Reddi - one of the two should succeed to the mootah

Reddi - one of the two should succeed to the mootah

I will try to convey a message to him but I am very much afraid of the future deed. I went with a bunch of plainclothes and paid my respects to the gentleman who caught Ambul Reddi Ever since that I am afraid of the futuridars

The Raker villages are

- 1 Raker 10 houses.
- 2 Bleewada 5 or 6 houses
- 3 Pulukota 1 house.
- 4 Puntanacotta 5 or 6 houses.
- 5 Muttasavada 3 houses.

all other villages are utterly deserted.

Before the piteer the sist of my village was rupees 5 or 6. That was not too much. That included today. Sooner came to ask for a separate today tax

I do not know what the sist of the whole mootah was: it was 30 or 40 rupees. I cannot say what the mootah can pay."
