FORT WILLIAM, the 11th December 1880.

SIR,

In connection with the trade in dynamite a representation has been made by the agents for the sale of this and similar substances in India that the fee payable in accordance with the Arms Act rules* issued by the Governor General in Council under the Indian Arms Act, XI. of 1878, for import and transport licenses, falls very heavily on a commodity of such small intrinsic value as dynamite, which is, moreover, a valuable agent for many useful purposes. I am therefore directed to enquire whether in the opinion of His Grace the Governor General it would be advisable to make any reduction in the fees chargeable under the Arms Act rules on licenses for the import, transport, &c., of dynamite cartridges, dynamite (or other similar substances) in bulk, and caps (or other appliances) for the explosion thereof.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

Grant

Offg. Secretary to the Govt. of India.
