To Major C. Harris
Superintendent of Police Vizagapatam D.

Sir
I have the honor to report that Pattavidhi Jaggi Virayya Dora No 1 on the list was shot last night and his body was brought in here this morning by temporary Head Com.
Sub P. Appalaewamy who shot him.
I at once had a panchayat held and the body identified as that of Virayya Dora about which there is no doubt. I then had the head cut off which I steeped with Carbolic Acid & sent it off by express to Mr.
Lushington at Karsapatam who will forward it on to the Principal Assistant Agent at Vizagapatam.
I have also to report that Andha Bappa Baludu who was shot by Inspector Poreyah Naidu on the 25th Instant died yesterday while being conveyed into Hospital. consequently I had his body and Virayya Dora's burnt this afternoon. On The Supt note in the notification the lower in which the number of the Travest and Ensignment of Police are mentioned (from order)

On the 21st Ultimo I had the first Halba that the Triborderers were up this side; it was on that day that Temporary Head Constable Ramaswamy came across them near Kirdapetta and fired on them, but without effect.
Then again on the 4th Instant I heard that they had been at Mukudipalli on the 29th Ultimo. I was then at Paddavalsa but on the 4th Ult. Halba came into Gudam from Gudimamidi that the Triborderers were there or near there; on this Instant Paraya Naidu with ten Constables at once went out & at about 11 P.M. after a hard march came up to them on the top of an hill about 4 miles from Gudimamidi; after taking due precaution in his approach he got within 30 yards of their fire when he was challenged (and as he had been challenged twice during his approach) he at once gave the order to "run into fire" & did so himself backed up by Temporary Head Constable Ramaswamy and Constable No. 238 (the other Constables firing at random). The Triborderers at once rushed out and ran down the hill into a ravine at the bottom and escaped with the exception of Arda Padda Baladu who was shot thro the shoulder; at this time 2 guns, sword & knives, the whole of their ammunition, cloths were secured & some Rs. 27 little jewelry & some Rs. 1-6 in cash; on the 5th Instant Inspector Paraya Naidu searched all the surrounding country, but without success, he could only see that their tracks separated and that the Triborderers had made in different directions; he then returned to Gudam reaching there about 7 P.M.

I returned to Gudam in the morning of the 6th and learning from the wounded prisoner that Verappa Dora had a bad foot; at once sent out Head Constable Appalaraswamy & Constables ordering him to go to Mandapalli and search the country that side, as I thought that Verappa Dora might be got about there as I heard that he had much trouble in walking owing to his foot.

On the evening of the 7th Head Constable Appalaraswamy after searching the country enroute reached Mandapalli and there learned from a woman that Verappa Dora & another man were in an adjacent pargana; he at once took his party and surrounded their pargana (which was in a comparatively open place) and when they reached within about 80 yards of the pargana Verappa Dora and this other man ran out on which the Police at once fired, but missed. Verappa Dora & the other man then took opposite directions. Verappa Dora followed by Appalaraswamy & the other by Temporary Constable Radi Paladu, after following ^{Verayya} Dora some quarter of a mile as he would not stop, tho told to do so, Appalar ^{wamy} who had re-loaded seeing that Parayya was likely to escape in some jungle fired on him, the bullet entering in the small of the back about on a level ^{with} the hip and coming out under the navel Verayya at once fell and shortly after expired.

Radi Paladu came up with his man and knocked him down with the butt end of his musket and then tied him up; this man gives his name as Pattagandi Reddi who figures as No 20 on the list.

When I inspected Verayya's body I noticed 3 small wounds in the centre of his chest, in one of which I could insert a penaw some 3 inches; here, I learnt from Pattagandi Reddi were caused by some shot when Inspector Parayya iraidu fired on the ^{prisoners} on the 4th Inst. and I am finding out that Constable No 238 who was with the Inspector that night had his musket loaded with slugs. These wounds Reddi said were the cause of great pain to Verayya Dora and had prevented his getting away with the others; Reddi gives as his reason for stopping with Verayya Dora that he missed the others & being a Dumfia man did not know this Country.
Inspector Parayya Naidee & temporary Head Constables Ramaswamy and Appalarwamy have done very good work.

work the two Head Constables being out & out the best of Constables I have up here, and Inspector Parayya Naidee has been invaluable to me as regards his knowledge both of this Country and the people.

I have parties out all over the Country and have little doubt but that I shall soon be able to report the capture of most of the remaining Dittoorars who are out.

Have the honor to be
Sir
Your most Obedt servant
Lt Col. H. Favers.
Sgt. Asst. Surg. & Secy.
