JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

1st February 1881, No. 243.

Hill Tracts.

No. 6.

Proceedings, 1st February 1881, No. 243.

The propriety of appointing a Special Commissioner for duty in a portion of the Northern Districts, having for some time been under the consideration of Government, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council resolves to depute the Honorable Mr. Carmichael, Member of Council, who was for seven years (1862—69) Agent to the Governor of Fort St. George in Vizagapatam and Ganjam, to proceed on a tour through the Hill Tracts of those districts and the Godávári District, with the view of such a settlement of affairs being effected in those parts as may guard by every possible means against the recurrence of occasions for enforcing the authority of Government by recourse to arms.

2. During his deputation, Mr. Carmichael will take the chief direction of affairs throughout the localities above specified; the District Officers being subject to his control in all matters, in all branches of the administration, and corresponding with him instead of with Government—copies of their letters being forwarded to Government for information. The Governor in Council grants him full authority in every case where, in his opinion, the public good may require the adoption of prompt or early measures, to act upon his own discretion and responsibility, without a previous reference to Government. This authority extends to all cases now pending for decision.

3. The services of Major J. McD. Smith, Madras Staff Corps, now Superintendent of the Central Jail, Rajahmundry, and formerly Special Assistant in the Vizagapatam and Ganjam Agencies, are, on Mr. Carmichael's nomination, placed at his disposal as Secretary. Major Smith will draw an additional sum of Rs. 500, with the travelling allowances of a Principal Assistant. Such native servants as may be necessary will be employed by Mr. Carmichael at his discretion. The Surgeon-General will attach a qualified Medical Subordinate to the Special Commissioner's Camp.

4. Mr. Carmichael will continue to draw his full allowances as a Member of Council; and any extra expenses incurred by him in consequence of the present service will be paid by the Government on submission of the usual certificate. Advances will be made from the different treasuries on requisition.
