Fort William, the 4th February 1881.

Sir,

It has come to the notice of the Government of India that undue delay is occasionally allowed to occur in the issue of licenses for the transport of dynamite in accordance with the rules framed by the Governor General in Council under the Indian Arms Act, 1878, and that injury is thus caused to the dynamite trade. I am accordingly directed to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, arrangements may be made to secure proper despatch in the issue of such licenses.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

F. Daukes

Under Secretary to the Govt. of India.
