OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE,
MULKI 10 February 1881

No. 927

FROM

THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE,

TO The Chief Secretary to Government
Fort St. George.

SIR,

ENCLOSURES 8.

I have the honor to submit for the orders of Government the enclosed correspondence regarding the provision of an orderly to the master attendant at Negapatam. The master attendant applied for an orderly to keep order in his Court and to take convicted prisoners to jail. Also to keep order on the beach near his office. The last duty should be performed if necessary by the European Head Constable of the Town Police. As it appears on inquiry that the master attendant has only about 6 cases to try per mensem, and the police officers who charge these cases before him must be present in his Court I am of opinion that an orderly is not required. If an extra Constable is furnished

Yours faithfully,

he should of course belong to the Nagapattam Town Police but the Municipal Commissioners decline to contribute to this charge. There is already a heavy drain on the Police Reserve Force for orderlies to District and Divisional Magistrates nor would it as I conceive be correct in principle that an orderly should be furnished from this source for duty in a Municipal Town. The District Magistrate however still considers that an orderly should be furnished to the Master Attendant and I therefore solicit the orders of Government whether a constable should be added to the District
Reserve (which has no men to spare) for this purpose.
The cost will be Rs 98.14.6 per annum.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
Your most obedt servt,

Chiam
Inspector General of Police.

Read the following paper:—

No. 94. From Colonel C. S. HEARN, I.E., Inspector-General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Mulki, 10th February 1881, No. 927.

I have the honor to submit, for the orders of Government, the enclosed correspondence regarding the provision of an Orderly, to the Master Attendant at Negapatam. The Master Attendant applied for an Orderly to keep order in his Court and to take convicted prisoners to jail; also to keep order on the beach near his office. The last duty should be performed, if necessary, by the European Head Constable of the Town Police. As it appears on inquiry that the Master Attendant has only about six cases to try per mensem, and the Police officers who charge these cases before him must be present in his Court, I am of opinion that an Orderly is not required. If an extra constable is furnished, he should of course belong to the Negapatam Town Police, but the Municipal Commissioners decline to contribute to this charge. There is already a heavy drain on the Police Reserve Force for Orderlies to District and Divisional Magistrates; nor would it, as I conceive, be correct in principle that an Orderly should be furnished from this source for duty in a Municipal Town. The District Magistrate, however, still considers that an Orderly should be furnished to the Master Attendant, and I therefore solicit the orders of Government whether a Constable should be added to the District Reserve (which has no men to spare) for this purpose. The cost will be Rs. 98-14-6 per annum.

No. 95. ORDER THEREON, 25th February 1881, No. 446.

The Government consider it to be unquestionably part of the functions of a Police to provide the agency necessary for giving effect to the orders of Magistrates.

2. The entertainment of an additional Constable, at an annual charge of Rs. 98-14-6, on the Reserve of the Tanjore District, for the purpose stated in this letter, is sanctioned, with effect from the 1 March.
