Statement of Kattula Bhupati Reddi of Yédakúr, Kattula Bheemi Reddi of Irampilli, and Kattula Gangi Reddi of Bheemaram, Headmen of Yédakúr Mutta.

"The name of our Muttadar, who has been a leader in the fituri, is Kattula Devi Reddi. He has no sons, but two daughters. He has no younger brothers. Bhupati Reddi (one of the deponents) is the nearest male heir after him. We are willing to have him appointed as our Muttadar. If he is appointed he will bring back the ryots, and prevent them from making fituri.

"The mutta used to pay Rs. 44—Rs. 40 kattubadi, and Rs. 4 as Dasara expenses. When the Munsubdar took over the mutta he demanded Rs. 30 from Yédakúr, Rs. 25 from Pandirikota, Rs. 30 from Irampilli, Rs. 25 from Bheemaram.

"The whole mutta paid Rs. 30 as 'Chigurupannu.' We used to pay the Munsubdar's shists. We do not know why we made 'fituri'; we did so because our Muttadar, Devi Reddi, ordered us. The rents were very hard on us, as the mutta is only a small one and the ryots very few.

"Bhupati Reddi is son of the younger brother of Devi Reddi's father. He has a younger brother, but no elder brother. Bhupati Reddi is the nearest male heir to Devi Reddi. We swear that if the Sirkar fixes Rs. 60 kattubadi, we will pay it, but it will be hard.

"The Police of Kondada station used to visit us, and after that of Chodaram station. They never did us any 'anygyām,' or took bribes from us. They came for Dasara present; but that we paid 'ishtantsoppuna' (willingly); they used no force. We have no complaint against them."

Yedakur Muttu.

This Muttu, which at Mr. Prendergast's settlement of 1848 was secured to the Kattula family on a quitrent of Rs. 40 per annum was resumed by the Munsuadar in 1873, for as he puts it relinquished to him because the muttadar could not pay his quitrent.

It consisted of only 5 villages.

1. Yedakur.
2. Bheemaram,
3. Pandorimaindikota,
4. Irampilli,
5. Rajarajupod.

The latter as its name denotes, is and has for many years, been, deserted. After resumption by the Munsuadar, the amount levied from the 4 existing villages was according to the villagers' statement Rs. 110; according to the Munsuadar's accounts Rs. 121.

The muttadar when the "fituri" broke out was Kattula Devi Reddi. He was one of the original promoters of the fituri fituri and was proclaimed immediately after it commenced. He has no male children, and his nearest heir is Kattula Bhupati Reddi, his father's younger brother's son. Bhupati Reddi has not been in the fituri and the heads of the villages are willing to recognize him as muttadar. I recommend that he be so appointed.

Mr. Sullivan proposed in his report to raise the Kattubadi of this mutta from 40 Rs. to Rs. 60 per annum. He was not aware at the time that it consisted of 25 few villages. When informed of this fact by me, he wrote (Copy, October 10th 1879) "I had no idea the mutta was so poor and agree with you that Rs. 60 would be too heavy a kattubadi. I think the old Kattubadi would bear raising Rs. 10, which would make it Rs. 50 including Abkari tax." With this proposal I concur, and recommend its adoption.
