STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

UNDER Act No. IV of 1871 (The Coroners Act, 1871), the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Coroners in the towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay are made co-extensive with the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Courts of Judicature at Port William, Madras and Bombay, respectively no power to alter them being conferred. In Madras, these limits comprise twenty-seven square miles and include twenty-three agricultural villages. This area having of late years, owing to the increase in the number of inquests to be held, become too large for one Coroner, it is proposed that the Governor in Council should be empowered to restrict the local limits of the Coroner's jurisdiction by excluding from them the non-urban portion which differs but little from the adjoining mufassal district. To give effect to this proposal, the present Bill has been prepared. It empowers the Governor in Council, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, to alter the local limits of the Coroner's jurisdiction, as may be from time to time convenient, provided that these limits are never extended beyond the present ones.

2. In the event of the powers conferred by the Bill being exercised and the local limits of the Coroner's jurisdiction restricted, the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code relating to enquiries by the Police into unnatural and sudden deaths will (section 2) extend to the tract excluded from the jurisdiction of the Coroner, and the Commissioner of Police will discharge the functions of the Magistrate under those provisions.

3. The present opportunity has been taken to correct an error (the result of an oversight) in section 9 of the Madras Police Act (Madras Act No. VIII of 1867) as amended by the Code of Criminal Procedure.

A

TO

Empower the Government of Madras to alter the local limits of the Coroner's Jurisdiction, and for other purposes.

WHEREAS under the Coroners' Act, 1871, the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Coroner of Madras are made co-extensive with the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Court of Judicature at Madras; and whereas it is expedient to empower the Governor of Fort St. George in Council to alter the local limits of the said Coroner's jurisdiction; and whereas it is also expedient to correct an error in section nine of Madras Act No. VIII of 1867 (an Act to incorporate the Police of the Town of Madras with the general Police of the Madras Presidency and for other purposes) as amended by the Code of Criminal Procedure; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. The Governor of Fort St. George in Council may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, by notification in the Fort St. George Gazette, alter the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Coroner of Madras:

Provided that such limits shall not extend beyond the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Court of Judicature at Madras.

2. When, in exercise of the power conferred by section one, any area within the local limits of the said ordinary original civil jurisdiction is excluded from the local limits of the Coroner's jurisdiction, sections 133 to 135 (both inclusive) of the Code of Criminal Procedure shall extend to such area while so excluded, and all functions assigned to a Magistrate by these sections shall be discharged by the Commissioner of Police.

3. For section nine of the said Madras Act No. VIII of 1867, the following section shall be substituted:—

“9. The Town Police shall be governed by all the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code, contained in sections 89, 91 to 103 (both inclusive), 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 114, 116, 117 (first part), 118, 119, 120, 123, 124, 125, 127, 128, 129, 131, 133, 139, 140, 141, 142, 144, 147, chapter XII, sections 159, 161, 163 to 170 (both inclusive), 174 to 185 (both inclusive), chapter

XXVII (except section 385), sections 415 to 420 (both inclusive), 480, so far as they are applicable:

"Provided always, that the officer in charge of a Police-station shall not be required to bind over the prosecutor and witnesses as directed in section 123 of the said Code, if their immediate attendance can be procured without recognizances."

4. The portion of Schedule V of the Code of Criminal Procedure, under the heading "Acts of the Governor of Madras in Council," shall be read as if the letter and figure "s. 8" in the first column, and all the words and figures in the second and third columns opposite the said letter and figure, were omitted.
