Despatch from the Right Honorable EARL OF KIMBERLEY, Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Most Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated in Office, London, 25th January 1883, No. 4 (Judicial).

In the 12th paragraph of his despatch, dated the 3rd of August last, No. 24, my predecessor stated that the exact salary of the Puisne Judges of the High Courts in India had not yet been finally fixed; and in the 13th paragraph he expressed his intention of addressing your Excellency separately on the subject of the salary of the Native Judges of the High Courts.

2. The two questions thus reserved have been further considered by me in Council, I have decided to make no distinction in the matter of salary, between the Native Judges and the European Judges of the High Courts; and I have resolved to fix the salary of all Puisne Judges alike at the same sum as was received by the Judges of all the High Courts other than at Calcutta, previous to the orders contained in my predecessor's despatch, No. 7 dated the 3rd of February 1881.

3. The Resolution which I now communicate to your Lordship in Council is to have effect from the date of your Excellency's receipt of this despatch.
