Letter from the Registrar, High Court, Calcutta, No. 1187, dated 23rd May 1884.

Resolution—

With the Resolution of the 17th January 1880, cited in the preamble, the Government of India circulated to local Governments and Administrations two series of statements framed by the High Court at Calcutta—one, a larger series, called the "Annual statements," and the other, a smaller series, termed the "Judicial statements," with instructions that the latter series should be adopted in the annual administration reports of the several presidencies and provinces. The "Annual statements" had been prescribed by the High Court for the reports on civil and criminal justice in the Lower Provinces and Assam, and the desirability of using them in the corresponding reports of the other provinces was suggested to the Government of India. The Governor-General in Council, however, did not consider it necessary to prescribe any fixed forms for the annual departmental reports. It was left open to the several local Governments and Administrations or the several High Courts to direct such additions to, or modifications of, the forms adopted by the High Court at Calcutta as they thought fit. But His Excellency in Council desired that special care might be taken to provide that the forms for the annual reports on civil and criminal justice and the registers of the several courts leading up thereto should contain all the information required to complete the "Judicial statements."

2. It has now become necessary to amend some of these statements so as to bring them into harmony with the new Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882. Some minor alterations also seem to be required in order to remove certain doubts which have arisen in connection with their preparation and to make the forms as complete as possible.

The necessary amendments and alterations have accordingly been made in the statements in question, which are circulated herewith for general adoption, with effect from the current year. Any other statistics which it may be considered desirable to show may be given in separate supplementary statements either in the body of the report or in the appendices, the statements in the latter case being headed "Provincial."

3. An extract from the circular orders of the High Court at Calcutta, containing a set of the "Annual statements" as last revised, together with instructions for filling them in, is also forwarded with this resolution. The Governor-General in Council believes that these statements might, so far as local peculiarities permit, be followed with advantage in other presidencies and provinces.

Communicating to the Honorable the Judges of the High Court and the Inspector-General of Police resolution of the Government of India regarding the adoption of the new forms of — for annual reports on the administration of civil and criminal justice and for general administration reports.

Set of Annual Statement Forms in use in Bengal and of orders issued on the subject.

CI

REPORTS-ANNUAL).

116. [Instructions regarding Annual Reports—C. O. No. 29 of 21st August 1879].—(a) District Judges shall submit to the High Court along with the Annual Returns and Statements a Report for the year to which these refer upon the administration of civil justice. Tabular Statements in Forms Nos. 26 to 38¹ shall be incorporated in the Report, with apposite remarks as to any increase or decrease of business, or the like, shown in each. These tables shall include the figures for all the Courts of Small Causes, the regular Civil Courts, and the Revenue Courts in each district, separate totals being given for each of these classes of Courts. Much difficulty and unnecessary correspondence is caused by District Judges treating the Annual Reports as matters of routine, and failing to see that the entries in the tables included in them, and those in the corresponding Annual Statements, agree, as they must do, exactly. The failure to explain discrepancies between figures given in two successive Reports, which, in the absence of special reason, ought to be identical, is also a matter which leads to much unnecessary correspondence.

(b) The High Court does not consider it necessary to prescribe the use of any particular form of Report, leaving it to the District Judges to put on record the main features in the administration of the year in the manner which may appear to them most suitable; the following matters must, however, receive notice:—

The condition of judicial buildings.

The state of the Judge's record-room, which must be ascertained by careful personal enquiry, and not from the mere report of the record-keeper.

The extent to which effect has been given to the rules regarding the arrangement of the records in the Court of the trial, and to the rules regarding the destruction of unnecessary records.

The condition of the Judge's library.

The mode in which effect is given to the rules relating to the employment of Civil Court Ameen.

The working of the rules under the Court Fees Act.

The effect of recent legislation on the working of the Courts.

The date on which each Subordinate Court in the district was last inspected by the District Judge.

(c) The character, qualification, and official merits of the several Subordinate Judicial Officers should be made the subject of a separate report, in which the work done by, and the result of appeals from, each officer ought to be analysed and commented upon, only as aids to forming a judgment as to their respective deserts and fitness for promotion. This is not, however, to debar District Judges from recording in their Administration Reports any instance of special and distinguished merit on the part of any subordinate officer, which they consider deserving of special mention and entitling the person indicated to the favourable notice of the Court or of Government.

(d) [C. O. No. 1 of 18th January 1881].—District Judges shall forward to each Collector within their jurisdiction a copy of Annual Statement 2, and of so much of Comparative Tables I., II., and III. as relates to the Courts in his district.

RETURNS AND STATEMENTS.

117. [General Instructions to the preparation of Periodical Statements—C. O. No. 29 of August 1879].—(a) The forms of Periodical Statements entered in the list hereinafter following¹ are prescribed for adoption by the Civil Courts shown against each. On the forms themselves some instructions for observance will be found, and the following general instructions are also issued in order to secure the correct and uniform preparation of these Statements.

(b) When possible, printed forms should be used for the preparation of Periodical Statements. The practice of extending the printed forms by pasting sheets of paper on to them should be avoided. As many separate printed forms as may be necessary to contain the information required should be used.

For reports, and for explanations where these have to be separately written, foolscap paper should be used.

When a statement is blank, it should not be submitted, a note to that effect being sufficient.

(c) Where the figures given in any return differ from those given in any returns previously submitted, explanation should always be given in order to avoid the necessity for a reference in the matter. Much correspondence will also be rendered unnecessary if, before submission, figures entered in the Annual Statements are compared with those in the Court's printed report for the previous year.

(d) Officers having work in more departments than one should always note in their returns how their time was apportioned between the various departments. This is necessary to enable the Court to judge whether the work done is sufficient, and to admit of the officers' salary being correctly apportioned in the annual returns between the various departments.

(e) Monthly and Quarterly Statements should be despatched by Subordinate Courts to the Judge on or before the 5th of the month next succeeding that to which they relate, and Annual Statements on or before the 1st day of the new year.

(f) Quarterly and Half-yearly Statements should be submitted by District Judges to the High Court on or before the 15th of the month next succeeding the period to which they relate; and Annual Statements, along with the Annual Report on the administration of civil justice, on or before the 15th February of each year. The punctual despatch of correct statements is an important duty, the neglect of which will not be overlooked by the Court. The Periodical Statements have now been brought into accordance with each other as far as possible; and if due attention is given during the course of the year to the collecting of materials for the Annual Statements, the delay, of which the Judges have had so frequently to complain, should not occur in the preparation of these returns in a correct form.

(ff.)² The High Court insist especially on the punctual submission of the Annual Statements and Annual Report. Owing to the extreme delay and inconvenience which have constantly resulted from the remissness of District Officers in not submitting these returns in due time, and from the carelessness and inaccuracy which have necessitated frequent reference before correct figures could ultimately be obtained from some District, the High Court are compelled to state distinctly that any Officer who may in future fail to comply with these orders will be reported to Government, in order that some serious notice may be taken of his conduct.

(g) In the Periodical Returns submitted to the Court by District Judges, the returns of all Subordinate Courts including Small Cause Courts, as well as those of Additional Judges, should be incorporated. The information regarding Revenue Courts required for the Annual Statements will, under the orders of the Government, be supplied to District Judges by District Collectors.

(h) Except where specially provided, the returns are meant to show separately the work of each Court, and not the work of each officer who may have presided during the year in the same Court. Officers' names need not therefore be given. Where a Small Cause Court Judge presides over more than one Court, the returns must show distinctly the work of each Court, unless the figures required are mere totals for the "class of Court."

(i) A case is not said to be received or disposed of by transfer except when it is passed from one Court to another by an order. Cases which have been left by the presiding officer to his successor in the same Court are not to be treated as transferred. Where, through mistake or otherwise, a case has to be transferred from one file to another in the same Court, the column "Pending" must be corrected, and explanation given in the next return.

(j) The date of the transfer of a case by one Court is ordinarily to be taken as the date of its receipt on transfer by another; any instances of unusual delay should be noticed in the explanations. Where in the general statement compiled for any district the total of the column "Received by transfer" differs from that of the column "Disposed of by transfer," the reason should be explained, and any cases transferred from or to other provinces should be noted particularly, as the information is required in the preparation of the Court's general returns.

(k) Applications under section 230 of Act X of 1877, for the transfer of decrees to other Courts, for execution, and, whether granted or refused, should not appear in the returns at all. If a decree is transferred for execution by a superior Court to a subordinate Court of its own motion, after an application for execution under section 230 has been filed, and execution ordered under section 245, that application should be shown as disposed of and received by transfer. In any other case, the receiving Court is not to make any entry in its returns until it receives from the creditor an application for execution under that section. If after proceedings have been commenced in any Court on an application for execution, the creditor makes an application for transfer to a Court not subordinate, and the Court complies with it under clauses (a) to (d) of section 223, the case pending in the transferring Court shall be returned as disposed of by transfer, when satisfaction of the decree has not been obtained at all on the application for execution; and as disposed of on its merits, when part satisfaction has been obtained: but, as directed above, it is not to be noticed in the receiving Court's returns as received by transfer.

(l) Apart from a few specified classes of cases entered in the non-judicial miscellaneous statement, all the returns refer to judicial work only. Care must be taken in particular to enter none but judicial work under the head "Revenue Courts" in the Annual Statements. In the Lower Provinces of Bengal there will ordinarily be no entries under this head except in districts where rent suits are still tried in the Revenue Courts.

² This clause was in

Rule No. 30 of 12th December 1881.

(m) For the purposes of the Periodical Statements, suits and appeals from decrees are divided into three classes:—

I.—SUITS FOR MONEY AND MOVABLES, AND APPEALS IN THE SAME;

II.—SUITS AND APPEALS UNDER THE RENT LAW; and

III.—TITLE AND OTHER SUITS, AND APPEALS IN THE SAME.

The details of this classification, which must be strictly adhered to throughout the returns, will be found in Annual Statement No. 2.

(n) Suits for money, &c. are again sub-divided according as they are dealt with under the Small Cause Court procedure, or under the ordinary procedure. Where an officer has the powers of a Small Cause Court Judge, work done by him in the exercise of these powers should be shown bracketed with that done under his ordinary powers, and a similar plan must be followed where a Small Cause Court Judge has the powers of a Subordinate Judge.

(o) Under the head Miscellaneous (non-judicial) cases, information is required in the returns regarding only a few specified heads, viz.:—

Applications by tenants to deposit rent under section 46 of Act VIII (B. C.) of 1869.

Applications by distrainers for aid in making distrains under section 75 of the same Act.

Applications by distrainers for the sale of distrained crops under section 75 of the same Act.

(p) Separate Statements being provided to show applications for the execution of decrees, these will not be included under the head "Miscellaneous (judicial)" cases, and it is intended that such other cases only as require a judicial enquiry or order should be included. The following list shows the cases which are to be entered¹ under this head, and without the special orders of the High Court, no addition may be made to such viz.:—

Orders rejecting plaints.²

Applications under sections 25 to Act X of 1877, to an Appellate Court to transfer a suit pending in a Subordinate Court.

Applications under sections 99, 103, 108, 558, and 560 of Act X of 1877 for the restoration to the file of a suit or appeal dismissed on default, or decreed ex parte.

Cases under section 214 of Act X of 1877.³

Claims to, and objections to the attachment of, attached property under sections 273 and 487 of Act X of 1877.

Complaints by decree-holders or purchasers under sections 328 and 334 of Act X of 1877 of resistance to possession being given, except when, in case of obstruction by a claimant in good faith, the case is under section 331 to be registered as a suit.

Enquiries under section 258 of Act X of 1877, on the application of judgment-debtors, as to payments or adjustments alleged to have been made.

Applications under section 332 of Act X of 1877.⁴

Applications under section 344 of Act X of 1877 to be declared an insolvent.

Commissions under section 386 of Act X of 1877, for the examination of witnesses, received from other Courts and executed by the Court.

¹ Applications under sections 311 and 313 to set aside a sale in execution of a decree are to be treated as part of the execution case, and not entered as separate miscellaneous cases.—(C. O. No. 3 of 7th January 1860).

² Added by C. O. No. 20 of 25th April 1880.

Applications under sections 401 and 591 of Act X of 1877 for permission to sue or appeal as a pauper.

Applications under section 623 of Act X of 1877 for review of judgment.

Miscellaneous criminal proceedings under section 171 of Act X of 1877, and sections 435, 471, and 474 of Act X of 1877.

Cases under section 14, Act XVIII of 1879 (The Legal Practitioners' Act).

Cases regarding the property of intestates under section 7 of Regulation V of 1799 in which a claimant appears.

Cases regarding redemption and foreclosure of mortgages under section 83, Act IV of 1882.¹

Applications under Act XIX of 1841.

Applications for Certificates of guardianship, or of administration of their property under Acts XI of 1853 and XIX of 1853 for the revocation of such Certificates.

Applications regarding the care of lunatics' estates, and the guardianship of their persons under Act XXXV of 1858.

Applications under section 18 of Act XL of 1858, or under section 14 of Act XXXV of 1858, for sanction to the sale, &c., of the property of minors² or lunatics.

Applications for Certificates under Act XXVII of 1860.

Applications for probates and letters of administration under Acts X of 1865 and V of 1881,³ except contested cases, which must be transferred to the head of Suits; and applications for the vocation of such probates or letters. (Rule No. 2 of 23rd February 1884.)

Cases under Parts III and IV of Act I of 1870 (The Land Acquisition Act).

Cases under section 59 of Act VII (B. C.) of 1876 (The Land Registration Act).

(q) Cases under Act XX of 1863 and under sections 331, 470, 523, 525, 529 and 539 of Act X of 1877 are to be registered as suits, and must be entered as such in the returns.

(r) The following are classed as miscellaneous appeals:—

Appeals from orders under section 10 of Act X of 1877.

Appeals in miscellaneous judicial cases.

(s) In order to obtain the average duration of cases, the aggregate number of days for which all cases were pending before the Court must be divided by the total number of such cases.

(ss)⁴ As regards Suits, the date of the presentation of the plaint shall be considered as the date of institution; unless some defect or omission requires to be amended before the plaint can be admitted, in which case the date of admission, after amendment, shall be regarded as the date of institution. With regard to Applications to execute Decrees, the date of their presentation should alone be considered. The practice of calling for a report from the Amlah in charge of the department before allowing execution to proceed should never, save in very exceptional cases, be resorted to.

(t) When an order has been made under section 566 or section 568 of Act X of 1877, the case is to be considered as pending before the Appellate Court, and the time occupied in making the return called for, or in taking the evidence, must be counted as time occupied in the appeal.

² Added by C. O. No. 20 of 26th April 1880.

³ Amended by Rule No. 10 of 15th May 1881.

⁴ This clause was added by Rule No. 5 of 7th September 1881.

(u) When an order of remand is made under section 562 of Act X of 1877, the case must be treated as decided by the Appellate Court and must be brought on the file of the Lower Court.

(v) Separate accounts must be kept of the time cases, whether suits or appeals, were pending (1) from institution to original or first decision; (2) from date of application for review to date of finally disposing of the case, whether the review shall have been granted or refused; (3) from the date of the order of remand under section 562 of Act X of 1877, to the date of the new decision under such order. In Annual Statements Nos. 4 and 5, it will be necessary to give only the average duration before the original or first decision of a suit or appeal. Details regarding cases at later stages should be entered in the Tabular Statements prescribed for the purpose.

ANNUAL STATEMENTS.

122. [Instructions as to the preparation of the Annual Statements—C. O. No. 29 of 21st August 1879].—(a) District Judges should be careful that the proper officers of their Courts, and of the Courts subordinate to them, collect at convenient intervals the information necessary to fill up the Annual Statements. Some of these can be readily compiled from the Monthly and Quarterly Returns. In the case of others, the Court has not insisted on the requisite information being embodied in monthly or quarterly returns, but it is essential that it should be collected from time to time so as to be available without delay at the close of the year.

(b) The Court desire to impress upon District Judges and other officers concerned in the preparation of Periodical Statements, that, unless they are correct and framed in exact compliance with the instructions issued in that behalf, they are not merely valueless but mischievous.

GENERAL RULES CALLING FOR RETURNS AND PRESCRIBING FORMS FOR PROCEEDINGS IN SUBORDINATE COURTS.—(24 & 25 Vic., Cap. 104, Section 15.)

ANNUAL REPORTS.

1. [Instructions regarding Annual Reports—C. O. No. 5 of 14th October 1879.—(a) Sessions Judges and District Magistrates shall submit to the High Court, along with the Annual Statements, a Report for the year to which they refer, upon the Administration of Criminal Justice. The forms numbered 17 to 26² shall be incorporated in their Reports by Sessions Judges, and those numbered 15 to 26² in their Reports by District Magistrates. Much difficulty has been hitherto caused by the neglect of Sessions Judges to secure a correspondence between the figures given in the Tables in the body of their Reports and those contained in the Annual Statements submitted by them. Those Officers and District Magistrates are expected in future to see that no such discrepancies occur.

(b) The Court does not consider it necessary to prescribe the use of any particular form of Report; but the Report, in whatever form, should contain such remarks as suggest themselves on a consideration of the figures entered in the statements. Any great variation between the results exhibited for the year under report and for the previous year should receive notice and be explained, if possible.

(c) Amongst other matters, the following must be noticed in the Report:—

- The condition of the record-room, which must be ascertained by careful personal enquiry, and not from the mere report of the record-keeper.

- The extent to which effect has been given to the rules regarding the arrangement of the records in the course of the trial and to the rules regarding the destruction of useless records.

- The working of the rules under the Court Fees Act.

- The effect of recent legislation on the working of the Criminal Courts.

(d) Reports are not now required on the character, qualification, and official merits of the several subordinate Magisterial Officers. This is not, however, to debar District Magistrates or Sessions Judges from recording in their Administration Reports any instance of special and distinguished merit on the part of any officer which they consider deserving of special mention and which may entitle the person indicated to the favourable notice of the Court or of Government.

STATEMENTS.

2. [General instructions regarding Periodical Statements—C. O. No. 5 of 14th October 1879.—(a) The forms of Periodical Statements, entered in the list annexed,¹ are prescribed for adoption in future by the Criminal Courts shown against each. On the forms themselves some instructions for observance will be found, and the following general instructions are also issued, in order to secure the correct and uniform preparation of the Statements.

(b) When possible, printed forms should be used for the preparation of Periodical Statements. The practice of extending the printed forms by pasting sheets of paper on them should be avoided. As many separate printed forms as may be necessary to contain the information required should be used.

For reports and explanations, where these have to be separately written, foolscap paper should be used.

When a Statement is blank, it should not be submitted, a note to that effect being sufficient.

(c) Where the figures given in any return differ from those given for the same period in any returns previously submitted, explanation should always be offered to avoid the necessity for a reference in the matter. Much correspondence will also be rendered unnecessary if, before submission, figures entered in the Annual Statements are compared with those in the Court's printed Report for the previous year.

(d) Officers having work in more departments than one should always note in their returns how their time was apportioned between the various departments. This is necessary to enable the Court to judge whether the work done is sufficient, and to admit of the officer's salary being correctly apportioned in the annual returns between the various departments.

(e) Monthly and Quarterly Statements should be despatched by Subordinate Courts to the District Magistrate on or before the 3rd of the month next succeeding the period to which they relate, and Annual Statements on or before the 15th day of the new year.

(f) Quarterly Statements should be submitted by District Magistrates and Sessions Judges to the High Court on or before the 15th of the month next succeeding the period to which they relate, and Annual Statements along with the Annual Report on the Administration of Criminal Justice on or before the 15th February of each year. The punctual despatch of correct Statements is an important duty, the neglect of which will not be overlooked by the Court.

The periodical Statements have now been brought into accordance with each other as far as possible, and if due attention is given, during the course of the year, to the collecting of materials for the Annual Statements, the delay of which the High Court Judges have had so frequently to complain, should not occur in the preparation of these returns in a correct form.

(f)¹ The High Court insist especially on the punctual submission of the Annual Statements and Annual Report. Owing to the extreme delay and inconvenience which have constantly resulted from the remissness of District Officers in not submitting these returns in due time, and from the carelessness and inaccuracy which have necessitated frequent references before correct figures could ultimately be obtained from some districts, the High Court are compelled to state distinctly that any officer who may in future fail to comply with these orders will be reported to Government, in order that some serious notice may be taken of his conduct.

(g) It is not intended that any case should be entered in the returns as received or disposed of by transfer, unless the transfer was from one district to another, or from one kind of Court to another,— as, for example, from a Civil or Revenue Court under section 482 of the Criminal Procedure Code. A note should always be made in the column of remarks of the number, if any, of cases and persons transferred to, or received from, places outside the jurisdiction of the High Court, as this information is required in order to the compilation of the returns for the whole Province.

(h) The columns headed "Referred" and "Received on Reference" are meant to exhibit cases in which an enquiry or trial has been held, and the proceedings of the Court are submitted for confirmation by, or the order of, a higher tribunal; for example, cases submitted by Subordinate Magistrates under sections 347 and 349, by Deputy Commissioners under section 34, by District Magistrates, &c., under section 123, by Assistant Sessions Judges under section 31, by Sessions Judges under sections 307 and 374 of the Criminal Procedure Code. Mere references for trial under section 192 are not to be entered in these columns, nor in the columns exhibiting transfers; they are to be entered against the Court which decided them, and not against the Court which may have merely received the complaint.

(i) A case is regarded as coming on the file of the receiving Court from the date of commitment, reference, or order of transfer. As the annual returns of the District Magistrate will not now be submitted to the Court through the Sessions Judge, it is necessary, in order to avoid correspondence, that the former officer should report to the latter, as soon after the close of the year as possible, the number of persons to be entered in the district returns as committed or referred to the Court of Sessions.

(j) Cases of the kind alluded to above, in which the proceedings of one Court are submitted for the confirmation or orders of another, will, like cases committed to the Sessions, find entry in the returns of both Courts. The persons concerned will appear in the returns of the referring Courts, not as convicted, but as "referred". In the returns of the Courts receiving the references they will be shown as convicted, acquitted, &c., according to the result of the reference in each case, or as "pending", if orders have not been passed on it.

(k) Annual Statement No. 2 is intended to show the final results of trial, and it is therefore necessary that the Magistrates who have to prepare it should be apprised of the results of commitments to the Courts of Session. Section 373 requires Sessions Judges to forward to the District Magistrate a copy of the finding in each case. They shall also, at the close of each Session, return to the Magistrate of the District concerned the calendar of accused persons submitted by him, after filling up column 9, so as to show the orders of the Court of Sessions passed with respect to each person entered in it.

(l) Apart from certain miscellaneous proceedings under the Criminal Procedure Code, the returns have reference to judicial work alone, the High Court having no supervision of police work in any shape. Appeals from orders of the District Superintendent of Police, which are heard by the Magistrate in his executive capacity, are to be excluded from the returns. So also are fines on ministerial officers for neglect of duty.

(m) No person who has not appeared personally or by agent in Court is to be included in the returns; but all persons who have appeared, whether in obedience to summons, warrant or other process, or voluntarily, to answer a criminal charge should be shown as under trial.¹ Persons discharged from bail taken under section 169, without appearing before a Magistrate, should not be entered in the returns. In calculating the duration of cases before the Magistrate, time must be counted from the date of the apprehension of the accused or of his appearance in Court, whichever was the earlier. In the Court Session the time will count from the date of the commitment of the accused.

(n) District Magistrates are required to maintain a watchful and intelligent control over the proceedings of their subordinates, and to inform themselves thoroughly, from time to time, of the mode in which business is transacted by them. In particular, they are expected to secure circumspection in the issue of warrants and summons, and to see that business is transacted with due despatch.

(o) Both Magistrates and Judges are required to see that the Statements are prepared neatly as well as correctly, in respect of the entries made, and that they are not disfigured by slovenly or bad writing. When such defects occur, the Statements will be liable to be returned.

(p) The column of remarks should contain the mention of any cases or particulars which do not appear to be fairly provided for in other columns, and should also contain brief explanations of any noticeable results appearing on the face of the returns, especially of such as, if unexplained, might lead to erroneous conclusions; in short, any comments which will tend to throw light upon the figures.

¹ Cases of escaped prisoners should not be shown as pending on the files. On their re-capture their cases will be entered as new cases (II. C. Resolution E. C., December 1867, and No. 84, 1880).

Witnesses examined by Magistrates in Court in preliminary enquiries under sections 202 and 476, Act X of 1932, need not be included in the periodical returns, the existing forms not contemplating them (II. C. 779 of 1933).

ANNUAL STATEMENTS.

[10. Instructions as to the preparation of Annual Statements—
C. L. No. 5 of 14th October 1870.]—

(a) District Magistrates shall in future submit their Annual Statements direct to the High Court, and not through the Sessions Judge.

(b) Sessions Judges shall submit separately to the High Court the returns relating to the Court of Session. These returns shall exhibit separately the figures pertaining to each District Magistracy within the jurisdiction of the Sessions Judge.

(c) District Magistrates must take care that the proper officers of their own Court and of the Courts subordinate to them collect at convenient intervals the information necessary to fill up the Annual Statements. Some of these can be readily compiled from the monthly and quarterly returns. In the case of others, it is essential that the requisite information should be collected from time to time so as to be available without delay at the close of the year.

(d) In order to secure the accurate preparation of Statements 2, 4, and 5, the forms of Register marked 27, 28, and 29, in the "Forms of Periodical Statements,"¹ shall be adopted in the Courts of all Magistrates. Register 19 shall also, so far as applicable, be adopted by Courts of Session. It is intended that the entries to be made in it should be made at once, on the conclusion of each trial, by the officer in attendance at the Bench. The entries in Register 29 may be also made then, or, with those in 29, they may be written up from time to time, as found convenient.

NOTE.—In the Annual Criminal Statements, columns headed "Brought to trial" or "Preferred," unlike those headed "Under trial" or "Total dealt with," are intended to show only cases brought to trial or appeals or applications filed during the period to which the return relates, and are not intended to include cases pending at the commencement of such period.—(G. L. No. 3, dated 4th February 1890.)

Column 1.—The printed schedule of offences must be adhered to. All cases under the Code of Criminal Procedure, except those indicated in it, must be entered in the body of this Statement. In the column of Remarks it may be noted how many of the persons entered against headings 8 and 10 were dealt with summarily under the provisions of Chapter XXXV of the Code of Criminal Procedure; in how many cases, entered against other heads, the complainant was required to pay compensation to the accused under section 250, or the defendant, in addition to the punishment inflicted upon him, was required to give recognizances or security to keep the peace under section 106; in how many cases, entered against heading 75, the orders of the Court of Session were taken under section 123. The list given of offences under "Special and Local Laws" is not meant to be exhaustive. Separate entry should be made, in alphabetical order, of each law against which offences have been committed. Attempts, where not separately specified in the Schedule, should be entered immediately after the offences at which they are attempts. Abetments should be included with the substantive offences abetted.

Column 2.—In this column the index number of the head of crime given in the printed Schedule should be entered.

Column 3.—All offences (cases) of which information was given, complaint made, or cognizance taken under Chapters IV, V, XIV, XVI, C. P. C., for the first time during the year, are to be shown, if they were alleged to have occurred in the district, although some of the charges may not have been prosecuted, or may have turned out to be false.

Column 4.—Enter all complaints (cases) dismissed under section 203, C. P. C., during the year.

Column 5.—Enter all cases other than those shown in column 4 in which, during the year, a Magistrate declared that the charge was false and that the offence never occurred. Include cases in which the complaint was adjudged to be frivolous or vexatious, and the complainant was fined under section 250, C. P. C. Exclude charges rejected by the Police, unless a Magistrate declared them to be false.

Column 6.—The entries in this column should be the balance of cases entered in column 3, after deducting those entered in columns 4 and 5.

Column 8.—Include cases and persons pending trial at the close of the year and those received by transfer from other districts.

Columns 7 to 12.—Those cases only in which an accused person has appeared personally or by agent before a Court, and the persons who so appeared, are to be entered in these columns.

Columns 8, 9 & 10.—The final result of trial as regards each person will determine the heading in column 1 against which he is to be entered. Where an accused is tried under more than one head of charge, he should be exhibited under the principal one only unless he happens to be accused of entirely distinct offences supported by separate evidence, in which case the trials would be separate, and the results independent.

Columns 9 & 10.—These columns are intended to show the result of trial in the Magistrate's Court as regards persons whose cases were disposed of by Magistrates, and in the Court of Session as regards persons whose cases were disposed of by that Court. In cases referred by Subordinate Magistrates under sections 347, 349, by Deputy Commissioners under section 34, by Assistant Judges under section 31, and by Courts of Session under sections 307 and 374, C. P. C., the results to be shown are those in the Court which received and dealt with the reference. Should this Court not have decided the case by the end of the year, it should be entered as "Remaining under trial."

Column 11.—In the column of Remarks, the names of the Courts or Districts to which any cases were transferred should be noted, in order that it may be ascertained that they have been properly entered in the returns of the latter.

Column 12.—Committed cases, which had not been decided at the close of the year, will be entered as pending in this column, as well as the referred cases above alluded to.

RESOLUTION

With the Resolution of the 27th January 1880, cited in the preamble, the Government of India circulated to Local Governments and Administrations two series of statements framed by the High Court at Calcutta,—one, a larger series, called the "Annual Statements," and the other, a smaller series, termed the "Judicial Statements," with instructions that the latter series should be adopted in the Annual Administration Reports of the several Presidencies and Provinces. The "Annual Statements" had been prescribed by the High Court for the Reports on Civil and Criminal Justice in the Lower Provinces and Assam, and the desirability of using them in the corresponding reports of the other Provinces was suggested to the Government of India. The Governor General in Council, however, did not consider it necessary to prescribe any fixed forms for the annual departmental Reports. It was left open to the several Local Governments and Administrations of the several High Courts to direct such additions to, or modifications of, the forms adopted by the High Court at Calcutta as they thought fit. But His Excellency in Council desired that special care might be taken to provide that the forms for the Annual Reports on Civil and Criminal Justice and the registers of the several Courts leading up thereto should contain all the information required to complete the "Judicial Statements."

2. It has now become necessary to amend some of these statements so as to bring them into harmony with the new Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882. Some minor alterations also seem to be required in order to remove certain doubts which have arisen in connection with their preparation and to make the forms as complete as possible. The necessary amendments and alterations have accordingly been made in the statements in question, which are circulated herewith for general adoption, with effect from the current year. Any other statistics which it may be considered desirable to show may be given in separate supplementary statements either in the body of the report or in the appendices, the statements in the latter case being headed "Provincial."

3. An extract from the circular orders of the High Court at Calcutta, containing a set of the "Annual Statements" as last revised, together with instructions for filling them in, is also forwarded with this Resolution. The Governor General in Council believes that these statements might, so far as local peculiarities permit, be followed with advantage in other Presidencies and Provinces.
