Directing publication of notification regarding the civil jurisdiction of the —.

High Court

23rd January 1884

My dear Webster,
The High Court having referred to the Civil Courts Act, thinks that Government have no power under it to invest an officer with the powers of a Subordinate Judge, but that they must appoint him as a Subordinate Judge. Consequently the J.O. referred to in my official letter Govt knoweth should not, for the purpose in view, have abolished the Subordinate Court at Cochin and invested the Deputy Collector with the powers of a Subordinate Judge, and I am to suggest that an order be passed in modification thereof - framed in the terms of the Draft Notification forming the enclosure of my official letter

 High Court with C.T.
