Malabar District Magistrate's Office
Calicut 15th December 1883.

From,

C. A. Galton, Esq.,
District Magistrate,
Malabar.

To,

The Honble C. J. Webster, Chief Secretary to Government,
Madras.

Sir,

With reference to G.O. dated 2nd May 1883, No. 1189, sanctioning the High Court's proposal that Judicial Statements, Criminal Nos. I and II, should from the commencement of the next Calendar year be compiled and submitted by the District Magistrate instead of by the Inspector General of Police,
I have the honor to state that it is impossible to undertake this extra work, as far as this District is concerned, without additional aid. In their order dated 24th vide also para 6 of the letter from the Registrar of the High Court embodied in G.O. dated 2nd May 83, No. 1189, recognize the fact that the establishment

Judicial Magistrates are already overworked and this is especially the case in this District, for not only are there more Subordinate Courts to be supervised than in any other District in the Presidency, involving the scrutiny of a very large number of calendars and issue of orders thereon, the District Magistrate being under existing orders responsible for the supervision of all subordinate Courts, but the District is divided into ^{two} Sessions Divisions necessitating the submission from the District Magistrate's Office of duplicate returns.

2. The Establishment allowed to the District Magistrate consists of clerk on Rs 60 assisted by one on Rs 20 and the work they have to perform in the way of returns is shown in the accompanying return. It must be borne in mind that they have also much miscellaneous work besides compiling statements — such as looking into records of cases, drafting Proceedings &c. Since this staff was fixed there have been numerous

D ^r Magistrate Court	1.
Sub. Divisional Magistrate Courts	7
Asst. Magistrate Court	1.
Spl. Magistrate Court at Cochin	1.
1 st Cl. Magistrate Court at Sydhery	1.
Dy Magistrate (Treasury) Court	1.
Bech Magistrate Courts	5
Tah. Magistrate Courts	10
Dy Tah. D ^r	13
Shen. Magistrate D ^r	9
Spl. Magistrate (Sub-Registrars)	7
Total	56

changes which have contributed to the extra work on the District Magistrate's Office such as the introduction of the Arms and Factory Act, Petroleum, extension of emigration operations, &c, whilst more elaborate returns are now required by the High Court for the annual report — vide their Circular N^o 421 dated 14th March 1881; and the returns from Subjails have recently been enlarged. I think it will be admitted that the present staff cannot possibly do any more than at present and that they are already over-tasked.

3. In the office of the District Superintendent of Police the marginally noted Establishment is, I understand, continuously employed on the preparation of the Statistics which will hereafter devolve on the District Magistrate's Office, and at times of pressure extra assistance is obtained from outstations. For the work, which has to be performed requiring

1 clerk on Rs 25
1 D ^r on Rs 20
1 D ^r on Rs 12
1 Constable on Rs 8

as it does care and intelligence, I would rather have two or three superior hands — than a larger number of inferior men and I therefore venture to ask for the additional staff marginally noted as a temporary measure subject to report at the end of the year when I shall be in a position to say what labor is involved.

one clerk at Rs 30 per mensem
one D^y at 25 "
one D^y at 20 "

The following explanation of the work to be accomplished will show that when 56 Courts are concerned, the labor will be considerable. Register A has to be maintained by each of the above Courts.
From this Register Statement II is to be compiled and submitted to the District Magistrate monthly. The Police ^{also} have to submit Statement II (a) to the Magistracy monthly. These will have to be abstracted in the District Magistrate's office and compiled for each Sessions —
Division separately, a consolidated Statement is ~~for~~ being submitted to the High Court. Similarly, statement B has to be submitted monthly

by the Magistracy to this office and from these returns a consolidated statement has to be prepared for each Sessions Division separately for submission to the High Court annually.

5. Early orders are shifted, as the new arrangement takes effect from the commencement of the ensuing Calender
year.
