For

High Ct.
18th Dec. 1883

My dear Hamrick,
Mr. Hutchins says that was no intention to do away with the Post Office at Cochin. The Deputy Collector & the Sheristadar are to replace (1) the Supdt. of Customs. (2) the Police. (3) the Sub. Registrar.
(4) the Sub. Judge.
about. Meanwhile Mr. Hutchins thinks that we shall have it not altogether from the Kinnaird Collection (of Adm. Sir James Judge) jurisdiction. But if the Govt. agree to postpone some of these reports till April - the matter is not pressing, we shall meantime consult the Judges & Collectors concerned. My letter for the postponement comes in with this.

Yours sincerely
J. S. Lawrence

My dear Davies.

The Sub-judge at Cochin has represented the Government that under the recent orders on judicial reorganization he will be known out of employ, please let me know what proposals the High Court intend to make about him, He cannot come back to the Revenue dept and should be provided for in the judicial, can he not be made a <sup>magistrate</sup> ~~magistrate~~?

High Court
7th January 1882

My dear Webster,

In reply to your D.O. of the 4th about Libbaraya Aiyer of Cochin, I am directed to say that he does not really belong to the Judicial Department.
Though called a Subordinate Judge he is only a Deputy Collector with Judicial powers - He was a Deputy Collector before and not a Munsiff, & the High Court cannot recommend his being made a Sub-Judge over the heads of some better men with far more judicial experience. As for his being a Munsiff, he already draws more pay than a first class Munsiff and cannot well be reduced. The only error that suggests itself to the Judges High Court is that he be treated, as he is, as a Deputy Collector, with Sub Judge's powers, and allowed to remain at Cochin until the orders of the Govt of India <sup>on the Reorganization Scheme</sup> are received, or he can be otherwise provided for.

Yours sincerely,
J. A. Davis

Sub Judge Corbin, d. 7 and 8 January 82.

FOR ORDERS.

To Sec 83. 3199.

Under the orders of Government the Corbin Ct. has been advised and it was its intention that certain changes should be made there viz the abolition of a Subj of Sea Customs, Tahuebar etc - it now remains to carry out these changes. The establishment of the Sub Judge has been moved to Palghat to do duty with the new court there, meanwhile the Sub Judge at Corbin is left with cases on his file and no establishment with which to do the work. The attention was app-

I think the case was to await the High Court's reply to S. J. 14 Dec
S. J. 2033102
I have ordered that the case be put off until the 14th Jan
I W. J.

Dear Webster,
The enclosed was jotted down when
O. P. H. was written yesterday morning.
He seemed apprehensive that S. A.
might be making sub Judge without the High Court being aware. I said I thought it unlikely.
The High Court think
the matter committed

It is thought that this arrangement is the best that can be made in the circumstances at Cochin, but until this is done it is submitted the power to Sub Judge [who is a first class Magistrate] might be applied temporarily to Cochin as a Deputy Collector with Sub Judge powers and to collect And District Judge might be told to give him an establishment to so on with until a permanent arrangement can be made.

Another is put up to the effect that the present Sub Judge came from the Revenue Dept where he was a 4th class Deputy Collector in 1880 when he became Special Judge at Cochin.

Before the officers who are recommended for abolition, are abolished probably it would be well to ask the Collector's opinion but however much be done in the Revenue Dept.

Now however some temporary arrangement is required to be made.

The G.O. (No 3197) in reference to Revenue (C.D.) No 1000 has no action has yet been taken in that Department?

When action is taken the District Collector should be clearly stated for his signature. Note of the 15th Dec shows that there was some doubt what was originally intended.

intended by the Committee in regard to disposal of and then is done in Cochin. Orders perhaps.

I do not find that this proposal to appoint an additional Deputy Collector for Cochin who is specially referred for the sanction of the Govt of India in our letter No 3198 d/4/12/83. Such sanction will doubtless be required.
