to state, for the information of Government, that the General Officer Commanding Bangalore division has been informed that His Excellency wishes that native soldiers who may hereafter be sentenced to imprisonment, with hard labor, by courts-martial, should be sent to jails in the Madras Presidency.

2. With regard to those prisoners, however who are now undergoing imprisonment in the central jail at Bangalore, I am to request, with reference to the 153rd Indian Articles of War (Act V of 1869), that Government may be moved to cause their transfer to jails in the Madras Presidency if this has not already been ordered by the Government of India.

ENCLOSURES.

From Major-General HUGH ROLANDS, v.c., c.b., Commanding Bangalore Division, to the Adjutant-General, Ootacamund, dated Bangalore, 29th October 1884, No. N.A.—Prisoners, 252-A.

I have the honor to enclose copy of letter, No. 1453-A—759, dated 15th October 1884, from the Assistant to the Resident in Mysore in which he informs—

I. That the Government of India have sanctioned the construction of a district jail within the assigned tract for the reception of prisoners under trial, and of convicts sentenced by the courts of the civil and military station to imprisonment for twelve months and under, and have further ordered the transfer from the central jail at Bangalore to jails in the Madras Presidency of all prisoners sentenced by such courts to more than one year's imprisonment.

III. That, if there are any reasons against sending court-martial prisoners from Bangalore to Madras jails, the Resident would ask the durbār to allow its jail to be used till one for the civil and military station is built.

2. I beg to submit the question for the consideration and orders of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

3. The number of court-martial prisoners at present undergoing sentence in the central jail, Bangalore, is nine. These prisoners belong to native corps quartered in the station.

From H. WYLIE, Esq., Assistant to the Resident, Mysore, to the Officer Commanding Bangalore division, dated Bangalore, 15th October 1884, No. 1453-A—759.

I am directed by the Resident to inform you that the Government of India have ordered the construction of a district jail within the assigned tract for the reception of prisoners "under trial" and of convicts sentenced by the courts of the civil and military station to imprisonment for twelve months and under, and have further ordered the transfer from the central jail at Bangalore, which is under the control of the Mysore Government, to jails in the Madras Presidency of all prisoners sentenced by such courts to more than one year's imprisonment.

2. The necessary steps have been taken by the Resident to carry out the above orders, but the question now arises as to the disposal of prisoners sentenced to imprisonment by courts-martial. The opinion of Dr. Henderson, the superintendent of the central jail at Bangalore, is that military prisoners ought not in future to be sent to Mysore jails, and with this opinion the Resident concurs; but Mr. Lyall would like to know what the wishes of the military authorities are in this matter, and whether they consider that court-martial prisoners may be sent to Madras jails till a civil and military jail is constructed, or whether the Mysore Government should be asked to take charge of them till then.

3. If there are any reasons against sending court-martial prisoners from Bangalore to a Madras jail, the Resident will ask the durbār to allow its jail to be used till the one for the civil and military station is built.
