No. 216

Vellor 24th August 1885

From
W. R. Grinnell Esq
Inspector General of Mills
The Honble C. J. Webster
Chief Secretary to Government
Ottawa

Sir
 I have the honor to submit the following question raised by the Superintendent of the Central Jail at Trichinopoly for orders - as there appears to be no definite ruling on the subject.

Convict No 7622 Mannion was sentenced on 5th June 1883 to two years rigorous imprisonment, again on 9th August 1883 to one year rigorous imprisonment, again on on the same date to 3 years rigorous imprisonment finally on 10th August 1883 to 3 years rigorous imprisonment, these sentences to take effect on after the other. On 12th March 1884, four orders were received from the High Court of Madras dated 4th March 1884, quashing all the convictions and sentences except the last one viz that of 10th August 1883 which was confirmed.

3. The question arises, as to the date from which the prisoner's sentence is to be computed. Should it be from original date of confinement viz 5th June 1883 or from date of last sentence i.e. the one confirmed viz 10th August 1883.

J

I have the honor to be

ENCLOSURE

SUBJECT.

Submitting for orders Execution issued by the Dept of Public Jail Department regarding date of sentence

*The I.G. of Jails submits the following case for orders. A convict was sentenced on 5 June 83, to 2 years' rig. imprisonment, again on 9 Aug 83 to 1 year's rig. imprisonment,
again on 9 Aug 83 to 1 year's rig. imprisonment,
again on 10 Aug 83 to 4 years' rig. imprisonment, the four sentences to take effect one after another. In March 84, the High Court quashed the first 3 sentences, but confirmed that of 10 Aug. The I.G. asks for what date that sentence will run.*

*The sentence must run from the date on which it is passed, in the absence of an order to the contrary (Ruling of Sadr Ad. 21st Feb 1862). It is therefore submitted that the Govt.
Prisoner should be directed to move the High Court to revise their proceedings, taking into account the period of imprisonment undergone betw 5 June & 10 Aug 83.*

*Will they revise their order? The existing sentence began - by the C. order of March 84 - on 10 August 83.
