T. No. 2925.

From

Geo. Hammett, Esquire,
Inspector General of Registrations,
Madras.

To

The Honorable W. Wilson,
Ag. Chief Secretary to the Govt.,
Fort Saint George.

Dated, Coimbatore, 27 November 1885.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit for the favorable consideration of His Excellency the Governor in Council a report from the Registrar of Ganjam, bringing to notice that the only clerk in the Sub-Registrar's office at Ichapur and two clerks from his own office at Chattrapur have been required to serve as assessors in the District Court at Barhammore, and that although the inconvenience caused to the department by the absence of the clerks was represented to the Session Judge, he would not grant the prayer of the clerks to be exempted from serving as assessors.

2. The reasons which induced the Governor to direct the exemption of all registration officers from liability to serve as assessors or assessors.

* No. 227 dated 17 November 1885, with enclosure.

The docketed Courts in Proceedings, Judicial, no.
153 dated 19th January 1885 apply with greater force in the case of the registration clerks, for without them documents cannot be copied or returned to parties; and I beg therefore that all registration clerks may also be exempted from liability to serve as jurors or assessors in the Municipal Courts.

I have the honor to be,

Yours,

Your most obedient servant,

W. Hammett
Solicitor-General.

CURRENT NO. 4/128

Judicial (1885) Department
Registration

For orders.

The Govt. have already exempted all "registration officers" ~~to~~ from liability to serve as jurors. G.O. 19th Jan. /85 No. 153 Just. This it is submitted, would not include clerks as they cannot register documents. They are therefore no more registration officers than clerks in the office of the J.C. of Police are police officers. The term "registration officers" is not defined in the Registration Act (III of 1877) but the ~~term~~ ~~regis~~ It is submitted that ~~if~~ all public servants are exempted there will be but few educated people left to choose assessors & jurors from. The majority of the clerks in the office are liable to serve.
