GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—file of returns showing the rewards disbursed during 1886.

ORDER—dated 17th June 1887, No. 1306, Judicial.

The foregoing returns exhibit the rewards disbursed during the year 1886, under the authority conveyed in the Proceedings of Government, dated 23rd August 1862, No. 1380, and 9th October 1877, No. 2396, for special and meritorious services rendered in aid of public justice in the recapture of escaped prisoners and in saving life. The total sum thus paid amounted to Rs. 4,054, of which Rs. 1,549 were disbursed by District Magistrates, Rs. 2,325 by the Inspector-General of Police, and Rs. 180 by the Inspector-General of Jails.

2. In the review of these returns, the Government have occasion year after year to notice the same omissions and the same contravention of orders. In the following paragraphs these are noticed seriatim, and the District Magistrate of each district concerned will explain why the oft-repeated instructions of Government have been neglected. These instructions are to be found reiterated again and again in the reviews of the returns of preceding years, and the exercise of the most ordinary care would prevent their recurrence.

3. As regards rewards paid for saving life, it has been laid down, and particular attention was last year drawn to the instruction, that each reward is to be reported to Government at the time of its disbursement, and that, in submitting the annual return, the number and date of each letter of report is to be entered against each item, so as to enable the case to be identified. Nevertheless, in the returns from Kurnool, Cuddapah, North Arcot, South Canara and Trichinopoly, these orders have been neglected. In the case of Cuddapah, this defect was specially pointed out last year, and yet is again repeated in the present return; the District Magistrate will explain the reason of this neglect. In the return from Kurnool, five rewards paid for the saving of life are entered with no remark to show whether they were reported to Government, and, if reported, by what letter. In the return from North Arcot, similar omissions are observed: in two cases—those of Parayellam and Peer Saheb—the letters reporting the rewards have been traced in the office, but it is not known whether the other three rewards were reported to Government, and, if so, in what communications. The District Magistrate will supply the necessary information. In the return from South Canara, three cases of saving life are entered without the particulars required. The case of Panji has alone been traced in the office, and the District Magistrate will report whether the other two cases were brought to the notice of Government when the rewards were sanctioned. In the return from Trichinopoly, a reward of Rs. 50 to a police constable for saving a little girl from drowning, which was sanctioned by Government in G.O., dated 11th May 1886, No. 1226, is entered without any reference to the letter of report or to the Proceedings giving sanction. The District Magistrate will see that such omissions are not allowed to recur.

4. In the following cases, another standing rule has been neglected, namely, that rewards for the re-capture of prisoners escaped from any jail other than a sub-jail should be disbursed by the Inspector-General of Jails, and rewards for good conduct to police officers should ordinarily be paid by the Inspector-General of Police; while in any case in which the District Magistrate disburses such rewards, notice should be given to the Inspector-General concerned, and the fact noted in the annual return. In the Kurnool return, it is noticed that the District Magistrate paid Rs. 100, the maximum reward within his competence, to the "Bellary police" for the arrest of a murderer. It is not stated whether the Inspector-General received notice of the payment of this reward, nor are the names of the recipients and the amounts paid to each entered. The same omission has occurred in the case of rewards paid to policemen in Malabar, Nellore and Salem, and the special attention of all District Magistrates will be called to G.O., dated 17th September 1881, No. 1921. In the Malabar return, it is not stated from what class of jail the prisoner Antoni escaped. If the escape was from a district or central jail, the reward for re-capture should have been paid by the Inspector-General of Jails. In the North Arcot return, it is observed that Rs. 12-8-0 were disbursed by the District Magistrate as a reward for the recapture of a convict escaped from the district jail. This reward should have been paid by the Inspector-General of Jails.

5. The following inaccuracies have been noticed in the returns:—

North Arcot.—The entry in the column of remarks against the case of Peer Sahab appears from the District Magistrate's letter, dated 24th August 1886, No. 54, to be incorrect; the reward was paid for gallantry in saving a man and attempting to save two women from drowning, not for saving one woman as shown in the entry.

Madura.—The rewards reported by the District Magistrate in his letters of the 9th October and 29th November 1886, Nos. 53 and 63, are omitted from the return. If the reason for this omission was their non-disbursement during the year, the delay should be explained.

Malabar.—The entry in the remark column against case, No. 2, is inaccurate; the District Magistrate's letter, dated 3rd July 1886, No. 2675, shows the reward to have been granted for saving the lives of an old woman and a child from fire, not the lives of two men as entered in the return.

Nilgiris.—A blank return is submitted. The District Magistrate will state whether any part of the reward sanctioned in G.O., 17th March 1886, No. 675, for information which might lead to the detection of the supposed murder of a boy named Aaron, has been disbursed, and whether the police have discovered any information regarding the case.

Chingleput.—The nature of the services rendered by the village munsif in the first case reported is not specified. The omission will be supplied.

Vizagapatam.—The reward of Rs. 5 to one Bikari Doss for saving two lads from drowning, reported in the District Magistrate's letter of the 28th October 1886, No. 1846, has been omitted from the return; and it is not stated whether any part of the reward of Rs. 300 sanctioned in G.O., 22nd May 1886, No. 1372, for the detection of a case of child murder, has been earned. The information will now be submitted. The returns from the districts noted in the margin have been submitted without the total being entered at the foot of the figures. This point will be attended to in future.

6. The largest expenditure was incurred in the district of North Arcot. Of the total, Rs. 218 were spent in the detection of crime and arrest of offenders; six village magistrates and a post-office peon were among the recipients of rewards. The next largest expenditure was in Tanjore, where the rewards amounted to Rs. 227, most of which was paid in aid of public justice. The maximum reward of Rs. 20 within the District Magistrate's competence was granted in three cases for saving life. No rewards are shown as disbursed in the Bellary, Ganjam or Nilgiri districts.

7. Of the rewards paid by the Inspector-General of Police, two disbursements, amounting in the aggregate to Rs. 683, were sanctioned by Government in the orders noted in the margin. The first, paid to third-class Inspector P. Veerasami

G.O., 22nd February 1886, No. 468.

" " July " " 606, R. D.

Nayudu, was for successful detection of a case of torch-light dacoity in the district of Anantapur; and the second, a gratuity of two months' pay to certain subordinate police officers, was for good services rendered at the breach of the Red Hills Tank in November 1884. It is noticed that in several instances the Inspector-General has sanctioned rewards in excess of Rs. 20—the maximum prescribed in G.O., dated 23rd August 1862, No. 1380—without reference to Government. This course has probably been taken under the impression that, so long as the reward to each individual was not in excess of Rs. 20, the aggregate sanction for a single service was not subject to the prescribed maximum. This is incorrect. It is noticed, however, that the Inspector-General of Jails is empowered to grant rewards within a limit of Rs. 50, and there seems no reason why the same maximum should not be conceded to the Inspector-General of Police. The Government accordingly resolve, in modification of G.O., 23rd August 1862, No. 1380, to authorize the Inspector-General of Police to grant rewards without reference to Government within the limit of Rs. 50. In any case in which this is considered insufficient, special application must be made to Government.

8. Four of the rewards shown in the return submitted by the Inspector-General of Jails were sanctioned in the third and fourth quarters of 1885, but not disbursed till 1886. All rewards of whatever nature, whether in aid of justice, in the capture of escaped convicts, or in the encouragement of acts of humanity and courage, should be disbursed as speedily as possible. A disbursement of Rs. 100 is shown by the Inspector-General of Jails. For this the sanction of Government should have been obtained, as it is in excess of the limit (Rs. 50) within which the Inspector-General is competent to sanction payment.

9. The review of these returns has been delayed for the third year by the District Magistrate of Cuddapah, whose statement, instead of being submitted on the 1st March in accordance with paragraph 4 of G.O., dated 16th July 1884, No. 1753, was not received till the 1st June. No explanation of the delay of three months has been offered. The District Magistrate will submit the same at an early date.

2. In the review of these Returns the Government have occasion year after year to notice the ^{same} omissions and the same contra-vention of orders. In the follow-ing paragraphs these are noticed separately and the D. Magistrate of each District concerned will explain why the oft repeated instructions of Govt. have been neglected. These instructions are to be found reiterated again and again in the Reviews of the returns of preceding years, and the exercise of the most ordinary care would prevent their recurrence.

3. As regards rewards paid for saving life, it has been laid down, and particular attention was last year drawn

G. O. 7th Oct. 1877 No. 2396
13th July, 1884, No. 1753.

522P 1877
drawn to the instruction, that each reward is to be reported to Govt. at the time of its disbursement and that in submitting the annual return, the no. and date of each letter of report is to be entered against each item, so as to enable the case to be identified. Nevertheless in the returns from Kurnul, Cudda-pah, N. Arcot, S. Canara & Trichino-poly, these orders have been neglected.
In the case of Cuddapah, this defect was specially pointed out last year & yet is again repeated in the present return: the D. Magistrate will explain the reason of this neglect. In the return from Kurnul five rewards paid for the saving of life are entered with no remark to show whether they were reported to Govt, and, if reported, by what letter.
In the return from N. Arcot similar omissions are observed in two cases — those of Parayellam and Parahel, the letters report-ing

ing the rewards have been traced in the office but it is not known whether the other 3 rewards were reported to Govt, and, if so, in what communications. The Dt Magistrate will supply the necessary information. In the return from S. Canara 3 cases of saving life are entered without the particulars required. The case of Tanji^{has} alone has been traced in the office and the Dt Magistrate will report whether the other two cases were brought to the notice of Govt. when the rewards were sanctioned. In the return from Arichinopoly a reward of Rs 50 to a Police constable for saving a little girl from drowning is reported without remark as to whether the sanction of Govt. was obtained for the same. The maximum award which it is competent to the District Magistrate to award under 11th May 86. No. 1226. is entered without any reference to the letter of report or to the Pros. giving sanction. The D. Magt. will see that such omissions are not allowed to recur.

G. O.

26th May 86

G. O. 23rd Aug. 1862 No. 1380

15/3/86
G. O. 9th October 1871 No. 2396 is the 20 only and any higher reward requires the sanction of Govt. The Dt Magistrate will report whether the sanction was applied for and why the necessary entries were not made in the column of remarks.

14. In the following cases another standing rule has been neglected - namely that rewards for the recapture of prisoners escaped from any jail other than a Sub-jail should be disbursed by the Inspector General of jails, and rewards for good conduct to Police officers should ordinarily be paid by the Inspector General of Police; while in any case in which the Dt Magt. disburses such rewards notice should be given to the Dy. concerned, and the fact noted in the annual return. In the Annual return it is noticed that the Dt Magt. paid Rs 100, the the maximum reward within his competence, to the "Bellary Police" for the arrest of a murderer. It is not stated whether the Inspector General received notice of the payment of this reward, nor are the names of the recipients, and the amounts paid to each entered. The same omission has occurred in the case of rewards paid to policemen in Malabar, Nellore and Sabar and the special attention of all District Magistrates will be called to G.O. 17th Sep. 1881 No. 1921. In the Malabar return it is not stated from what class of jail the prisoner Antoni escaped. If the escape was from a District or Central Jail, the reward for recapture should have been paid by the Inspector General of Jails. In the N. Arcot return, it is observed that Rs 12.8.0 were disbursed by the District Magistrate as a reward for the recapture of a convict escaped from the District.

161 40
District Jail. This reward should have been paid by the Inspector General of Jails.

5. The following inaccuracies have been noticed in the Returns:-

N. Arcot - The entry in the column of remarks against the case of Rev. Sahel, appears from the District Magistrate's letter No. 54 of 24th Aug. 1886 to be incorrect: the reward was paid for gallantry in saving a man and attempting to save two women from drowning, not for saving one woman as shown in the entry.

Madura - The rewards reported by the District Magistrate in his letters of the 9th October and 29th November 1886, Nos 53 & 63, are omitted from the return. If the reason for this omission was their non-disbursement during the year, the delay should be explained.

Malabar - The entry in the remark column against case No. 2 is inaccurate: the District Magistrate's letter

3 July

3 July 86, No. 2875 shows the reward to have been granted for saving the lives of ^{an old} women and child from fire, not the lives of two men as entered in the return Nilgiris. A blank return is submitted. The Dist Magistrate will state whether any part of the reward sanctioned in G.O. 17 March 1886, No. 675, for information which might lead to the detection of the supposed murder of a boy named Aaron, has been disbursed, and whether the Police have discovered any information regarding the case.

Chingleput. The nature of the services rendered by the village Munsiff in the first case reported is not specified. The omission will be supplied.

Vizagapatam. The reward of Rs 5 to one Bihari Doss for saving 2 lads from drowning, reported in the District Magistrate's letter of the 28 Oct 1886 No. 1846, has been omitted from the return; and it is not stated whether any part of the reward
of

of Rs 300 sanctioned in G.O. 22 May 1886 No. 1372 for the detection of a case of ^{child} murder has been earned. The information will now be submitted. The returns from the Districts noted in the margin have been submitted without the total being entered at the foot of the figures. This point will be attended to in future.

b. The largest expenditure was incurred in the District of S. Arcot of the total, Rs 218 were spent in the detection of crime and arrest of offenders.
b. Village Magistrates and a Post Office peon were among the recipients of rewards. The next largest expenditure was in Tanjore where the rewards amounted to Rs 227 most of which was paid in aid of public justice. The max. reward of Rs 20 within the Dist. Magistrate's competence was granted in 3 cases for saving life. No rewards are shown as disbursed

disbursed in the Bellary, Channarayana and Nilgiri Districts.

7. Of the rewards paid by the Inspector General of Police two disbursements, amounting in the aggregate to Rs 683, were sanctioned by Govt. in the orders noted in the margin. The first, paid to 3rd Class Inspector P. Veerasami Aiyar, was for successful detection of a case of torch-light dacoity in the district of Anantapur, and the second, a gratuity of two months' pay to certain subordinate police officers, was for good services rendered at the breach of the Red Hills Tank in Nov. 1884. It is noticed that in several instances the Inspector General has sanctioned rewards in excess of Rs 20, the max. prescribed in G.O. 23rd August 1862, No. 1380 without reference to Govt. This course has probably been taken under the impression

G.O. 22.2.86 No. 468
" 22.7.86 No. 606 R.S.

1656 P. 127
impression that so long as the reward to each individual was not in excess of Rs 20 the aggregate sanctioned for a single achievement was not subject to the prescribed maximum. This is incorrect. It is noticed, however, that the Inspector General of jails is empowered to grant ^{rewards} within a limit of Rs 50 and there seems no reason why the same maximum should not be conceded to the Inspector General of Police. The Govt. accordingly, resolve in modification of G.O. 23rd Aug. 1862 No. 1380 to authorize the Inspector General of Police to grant rewards without reference to Govt. within the limit of Rs 50. In any case in which this is considered insufficient, special application must be made to Govt.

8. Four of the rewards shown in the return submitted by the Inspector General of jails were sanctioned in the 3rd & 4th quarters

of 16 July 1884, No. 1753, was not received till the 1st June. No explanation of the delay of 3 months has been offered. The Adm. Magte will submit the same at an early date.
