GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From W. LOGAN, Esq., District Magistrate of Malabar, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Calicut, 13th December 1886, No. 5570.

In forwarding herewith, for the orders of Government, copy of letter, No. 108, dated 25th November 1886, from the Sessions Judge of North Malabar, I have the honor to state that I have no objection to the proposal therein made to give notice of appeals under section 422, Code of Criminal Procedure, to the Public Prosecutor.

ENCLOSURE.

From H. SEWELL, Esq., Acting Sessions Judge, to the District Magistrate of Malabar, dated Tellicherry, 25th November 1886, No. 108.

G.O., No. 3149 (Judicial), dated 28th November 1883, directs that notices under section 422, Criminal Procedure Code, should be sent to the District Magistrate; but this order was passed when there were no duly appointed Government Pleaders and Public Prosecutors in the mofussil.

2. Now that a Public Prosecutor has been appointed, I think it is desirable, to avoid delay in the disposal of criminal appeals, that such notices should be given to the Public Prosecutor of the court instead of sending them on to you.

3. I therefore request to be informed whether you have any objection to this course being adopted in future.

4. I may also point out that my view is in consonance with the present practice of the High Court.

ORDER—dated 5th January 1887, No. 13, Judicial.

Under section 422 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the Governor in Council is pleased to appoint the Public Prosecutor to be the officer to whom notices of appeals to Session Courts should be given.
