(Judicial)

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter C/ 1206 dated the 6th June last, with enclosure, relative to the proposal to abolish the office of Coroner in Madras and the measures necessary to transfer his functions to the Police.

In reply I am to say that before coming to a decision on the subject matter of your letter the Governor General in Council will be glad to be informed whether the proposal to do away with the office of Coroner commends itself to the High Court at Madras. I am accordingly to request that, with the permission of the Governor in Council, a reference may be made to the Court with the object of obtaining
