7TH FEBRUARY 1887, No. 249, JUDICIAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 30th November 1886, No. 2582.

Read—the following G.O., dated 22nd September 1886, Mis. No. 2521, Judicial:—

Read—the following letter from H. G. TURNER, Esq., District Magistrate, Vizagapatam, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Vizianagrum, 17th August 1886, No. 1416:—

In their order, No. 1621, Judicial, dated 19th June 1886, Government have directed that copies of judgments of acquittal in abkari cases should be forwarded to the Assistant Commissioner of the division by the magistracy, and that the cost of preparing them should be debited to the Abkari Department.

2. Under G.O., dated 28th July 1885, No. 1951, Judicial Department, copies of judgments of acquittal in salt cases have also to be furnished by the magistracy to the Assistant Commissioner of the division; but there is nothing stated in the Government Order as to the payment of copying fees in such cases.

3. Presumably, the cost of preparing copies of judgments in salt cases should be debited to the Salt Department, calculated at the rates prescribed in the Revenue Board's Standing Order, No. 226.

4. I have the honor to request you will be good enough to inform me whether I am right in the above presumption, and if so, whether the cost of preparing copies in salt as well as abkari cases should be recovered from the Salt and Abkari Department, or whether it should be merely charged to that department and included in the magistrates' monthly contingent bills.

5. The former course seems to me preferable, as, although it entails additional work on the magistracy in sending requisition for fees every time copies are sent to the Assistant Commissioner of the division, it keeps the Salt and Abkari Department informed of the amount debitable to that head, with a view to provide therefor in their budget.

Order—dated 22nd September 1886, Mis. No. 2521, Judicial.

With reference to the first of his inquiries, the District Magistrate is referred to G.O., 27th August 1886, No. 2296.

2. The further questions regarding the manner of recovering the cost of copies of judgments, &c., in salt and abkari cases will be referred, in the Revenue Department, for the remarks of the Commissioner of Salt and Abkari Revenue.
