GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

Letter, dated 15th December 1886, M's. No. 3310, Judicial.

Read—the following papers:—

From A. P. MACDONNELL, Esq., C.S., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Judicial), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, 4th November 1886, No. 1611.

I am directed to state, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council that the Government of India contemplates the extension to the province of Coorg of the Lunatic Asylums Act XXXVI of 1858, as amended by Act XVIII of 1886; and that, as there is at present no asylum in that province where lunatics can be confined, the Chief Commissioner of Coorg has suggested that the asylum at Madras should be utilized for the purpose.

2. The proposal commends itself to the Government of India, and I am to request that the Governor-General in Council may be informed whether His Excellency the Governor in Council has any objection to the appointment, under Section 17-A of the Act, of the Lunatic Asylum at Madras, as the asylum for the reception and detention of lunatics from Coorg.

From G. BIDIE, Esq., M.B., C.I.E., Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 30th November 1886, No. 382.

With reference to letter from the Government of India, referred with your endorsement No. 1913-C, dated the 18th instant (herewith returned), I have the honor to report to the Right Honorable the Governor in Council that I have ascertained from the Superintendent, Madras Lunatic Asylum, that accommodation for civil lunatics from the province of Coorg is available in the asylum, and that criminal lunatics can be admitted after the completion of the cottage and six single rooms now in course of construction.

Letter—to the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Judicial), dated Fort St. George, 15th December 1886, M's. No. 3310, Judicial.

With reference to your letter, dated 4th ultimo, No. 1611, I am directed to forward copy of a letter from the Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, in which that officer reports that accommodation for civil lunatics from Coorg is available in the Madras Lunatic Asylum, and that criminal lunatics can be admitted after the completion of certain buildings now in course of construction. His Excellency the Governor in Council has therefore no objection to the proposed measure, provided that all expenses incurred in connection with lunatics from the province of Coorg will be met from Imperial funds.

(Signed) H. E. STOKES,
Ag. Chief Secretary.

From A. P. MacDONNELL, Esq., C.S., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Judicial), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Calcutta, 15th February 1887, No. 273.

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter, Mis. No. 3310, dated the 15th December last, I am directed to say that, in exercise of the power conferred by Section 17-A of the Lunatic Asylums Act XXXVI of 1858 (as amended by Act XVIII of 1886), the Governor-General in Council is pleased to appoint the Lunatic Asylum at Madras, to be an asylum to which a Magistrate or Judge exercising jurisdiction within the limits of Coorg may send lunatics as to an asylum established under that Act for Coorg. I am to add that all expenses which may be incurred in connection with such lunatics will be charged to Coorg revenues.
