From the Inspector-General of Jails, dated 28th April 1888, No. 190.

ORDER—dated 14th May 1888, No. 1118, Judicial.

As the G.O., 18th May 1886, No. 1309, sanctioning the appointment of a Public Prosecutor and Government Pleader jointly in each District of the Presidency, does not specify the duties of District Public Prosecutors, the procedure to be followed in order to secure their appearance, the Government are pleased to declare that instructions to appear shall always be given to the District Prosecutor by the District Magistrate, with whom officers of other departments requiring the Public Prosecutor's assistance in the conduct of criminal cases should communicate. The District Magistrate will also determine what fee is payable to the Public Prosecutor, under the rules already laid down. It shall be the duty of the Public Prosecutor to appear whenever so required by the District Magistrate.

From Mr. W. Elliott Esquire
District Court Pleader
To
The Superintendent of Jail
Cuddalore

Sir,
In reply to your letter of 31st dated 20th instant I have the honor to draw your attention to the fact that I did not appear as Public Prosecutor in the case in question.

I was suggested by you as a Pleader and filed my Vakalatnamah as such. The fee settled was Rs 20 for each day. My bill for Rs 100 was for 5 days work. I might have billed you for 6 days, but did not, as on the first day I did nothing, though I had to wait almost the whole day in the Sub-Magistrate's Court as you are aware.

I feel sure that if you will only represent these facts to the Inspector General he will unhesitatingly apply to Government for sanction to pay the full amount of my bill.

I think you ought to mention that the prisoners was defended by two of the leading members of the Cuddapah Bar, (one of them a Valiant of the High Court) each of whom I believe received more than I claim.

I have the honor to be

Inspector General of Police

Sir, I have the honor to forward herewith, for disposal, the letter of Mr. J. P. Pillai, Pleader of the District Court of Cuddalore, No. 58, dated 22nd April 1888, regarding his fees for conducting a criminal case.

I beg to point out that the Government have already in their order No. 417 dated 14th February 1888 sanctioned the payment of only Rs. 75 to him, to which he objects on the score of his having appeared before the Magistrate's Court for 5 days as a District Court pleader, and not as a Public Prosecutor.

Under these circumstances I beg you will be pleased

SUBJECT.

Submits for reconsideration and orders letter from the Superintendent, District Jail, Andrapur, regarding payment of
to the Public Prosecutor.

For orders.

The question is whether the Public Prosecutor was not bound, by virtue of his office, to conduct a prosecution if it was instituted by a private officer in his official capacity.

In any case Rs 75 seems enough.

The G.O. 187 May 1886 is in clear to the duty of the Govt. Pleader & Public Prosecutor to appear in all cases on behalf of Govt. Officers in the though this is clearly laid down in the Bombay rules. It seems advisable to settle the question. The fees ought to be on a fixed scale, and to be awarded by a high authority. Say the District Magistrate instead of being left to be arranged as in this case between the pleader and departmental officers.
