

MADRAS RECORD OFFICE.

Government of Madras.

Judicial DEPARTMENT.

G.O. No. 230

Press
Mis.

Dated 27th January 1888.

Not to be folded or roughly handled

1888
Judicial (1900) Department.

ORDINARY MS.

G.O., No. 230

Dated 27th January
1888.

11-7-01
21-2-07
24-8-08
5/10
12/6/12
3-12-12
29-6-14
21-3-17
8-6-23

[Despatch Abstract].

Registration Department. — Approving the proposition submitted by the Inspector-General and sanctioning rewards, the scheme of reorganization of the — with effect from 1st January 1888.

Revenue Department. (A)

5734-

From,

James M. E. Egge
General of Registration
Madras.

To,

Honorable W. E. Stokes
Secretary to the Government
Fort St. George.
Account General.

Dated as the 22nd December 1887.

Sir,

I am transmitting through the Account General the proposition statement relating to the re-organization of the establishment of Clerks - prior year in, the registration department, I have the honor to state with reference to para: 3 of G. O. dated the 20th December 1887, No. 2895, that, as explained in para: 4 of my letter G. No. 220 dated the 14th January 1885 the establishment consists of a part of some Clerks in every registrar's office and in the subregistrar offices mentioned named, who are paid by fixed salaries, while the clerks in all the other offices are paid by a commission of 19 and 24 per cent on the income of each office

x Twelve

Gudalur-Kilgiris
Dargah
Nijungo
Shervany Hills

as per scale submitted by Colonel Macdonald in 1875, and approved of by the Government in G. O. Circular No. 439 dated the 24th February 1875.

2. According to this scale a special registry office which realises less than Rs 150 a month is allowed one clerk.
If it realises:

Rs 150 a month	is allowed	2 clerks
Rs 225	do	3 do
Rs 250	do	3 do
Rs 300	do	4 do
Rs 375	do	5 do
Rs 500	do	6 do

This scale has been followed up to the present time, and under its operation there have been 130 additional clerks employed from the 1st January 1885 to the 1st August 1887, and their salaries are included both in the existing and in the proposed establishment, therefore the cost has not been understated.
The statements in paras 3, 5, 6 and 7 of my letter G. No. 3987 dated the 27th September 1887 clearly show what is intended. It is not possible however now, without very considerable labour, to state, with any approach to accuracy, in how many offices it was found necessary to increase the number of clerks, and what the actual cost in each office has been. But it may be noted that of the 130 additional clerks, 51 were employed for the new sub registry offices, and the remaining 79 in the offices in which the receipts realised warranted the employment of extra clerks.

3. In the proposed scale of establishment, up to the inclusion of 80 Accountants and Clerks required in district and Sub-district Offices, no provision has been made for clerks who may hereafter be required to meet any increase of registration, because it is not possible to predict to what extent, or in what offices, the increase may accrue. Should registration however increase and should such increase be of a permanent character, sanction will, as in other departments, be sought for such establishment as may be required to meet such increase, but if registration should unhappily decline it will be necessary to reduce the existing establishment.
Meanwhile, upon the permanent scheme being enforced, it will be essential, as suggested by the Government, to provide a lump sum in the Annual Budget estimate to meet unforeseen charges on account extra clerks who maybe required for copying and indexing documents brought in by a sudden increase of registration in any particular office or districts, and it may be mentioned here that the practice in this department, since I have been entrusted with its supervision, is not to allow clerks any payment for over-time work. If such payment were allowed it would be an inducement to shirk work during office hours to earn an extra remuneration out of office hours. The principle adopted is to employ an extra clerk upon proof of extra work. The arrangement has worked satisfactorily, and since the 1st August 1887, I have found it necessary to sanction the employment of thirteen extra clerks, for temporary periods, to meet the extra work occasioned by the increased receipts prescribed by the scale cited in para: 2 of this letter.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.

W. A. Bennett
Inspector General of Reg.

N^o 87

Submitted to Government with reference to para 4 of Government Order, N^o 2895, dated 20th December 1887, the undersigned agrees with the Local Government that the present proposals amount only to an addition to an existing class of Officers and not to the creation of a new class: no reference to the Government of India appears therefore to be necessary.

For S. George
Acty Genl Office
16 Jan'y 1888.
Assistant General

To
The Chief Secretary to Govt
Judicial Department.

Judicial (1887) Department
"Registration"

From
The Superin General
Registration
Madras

To The Chief Secretary
to the Government
Fort St George

Through the Accountant Genl.

Dated 22nd } December 1887
Received }

G. no. 5134.

Enclosures 2/.

No.

Retransmitting the proposition statements regarding the re-organization of the establishment of clerks, peons etc in the department and submitting the information regarding the same called for in G.O. Judl No. 2895 of 20th December 1887.

Judl Department

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

READ the following paper

From the Acty Genl no. 87- dated 16th Jan 88.

Order 27 Jan'y 88 N^o 230

The proposition statements are approved & sanctioned & the scheme of reorganization will have effect from the 1st January 1888.

22 regards the matter referred to in the letter, no. 5134, dated the 22nd Dec^r 1887, the Govt are not prepared to empower the S.G. to enter an additional establishment with a view to permanent retention should the need for it continue.

in order to meet the case of any emergent & temporary increased they will be prepared to make a grant for office or officers with temporary assistance, to provide for section writers, should such be needed.

every case in which the employment of such section writers is not strictly emergent as well as a temporary character, the S.G. should at once apply for sanction for increased establishment.

W. G. S. / 21/1

Georgian, Georgia

760

12-2-19

29-6-16