No 161. High Court of Judicature, Madras, 23rd January 1888.

From H. J. Ross Esquire, Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras.

To The Honorable H. C. Stokes, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George.

Sir,

Referring to letter No 1604, dated 5th October 1887, from the Home Department of the Government of India, communicated with your letter No 2463, Judicial, dated 31st idem, I am directed to state that the Honorable Chief Justice and Judges see no objection to the proposed abolition of the office of Coroner of Madras, provided the duties and responsibilities now devolving on that officer are transferred to the Presidency Magistrates.

2. By far the most important part of the town of Madras is at present under the jurisdiction of the Coroner, and, among a mixed population, as that part contains it is, in the opinion of the High Court, of great importance that inquiries in the nature of Coroner's inquests should be entrusted, only to responsible Magistrates.

3. It is observed, that Sec. 1, clause (c) of the Code of Criminal Procedure (8 of 1892) excludes the police in the town of Madras from exercising the powers which, in the matter of inquests, are conferred on police in the Mofussil by Sections 174 to 176 of the Code; and if it is intended to legislate for the purpose of applying the Mofussil system to the whole town of Madras, the Honorable Chief Justice and Judges consider it a necessary condition that the functions assigned to a Magistrate by Sections 174 to 176 should, in Madras, be discharged only by the Presidency Magistrates.

4. The extract from the Finance Committee's note which is appended to the letter of the Government of India now under reply, would appear to indicate some intention of leaving inquests in Madras to be made by officers of police. If this is so, I am to say that the High Court would strongly deprecate such a change as calculated to cause great inconvenience and possibly a failure of justice.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. L. S.
Registrar,
Appellate Side.

Honble Sir,
with reference to Mr. Ross' letter no 161, dated 23 Jan. 88, I am directed to forward a copy of G.O. of June 1887 No 1205, which was inadvertently omitted to be forwarded with G.O. no 164 dated 5th Oct. 87. I am to request that the Honble the Judges will take note of the same and accept the proposals of the Commr. of Police recorded in the former Proclamation.

To the Honble the Chief Justice of the Madras High Court.

Note.

G.O. of June 87 No 1205 ought to have gone on the G.O. of 5th Oct 87 No 1604. & the omission is due to mistake in the office. It seems desirable before to Mr. Ross's letter, to get the High Court's opinion upon the arrangements proposed.

Stating that the High Court has no objection to the proposed abolition of the office of Coroner of Madras provided the duties devolving on that officer are conferred on the Registrar & Magistrates.
