13TH AUGUST 1890, No. 1346, JUDICIAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From Sir DENNIS FITZPATRICK, K.C.S.I., Resident, Hyderabad, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Hyderabad Residency, 23rd July 1890, No. 4144.

I have the honor to state that it has been found necessary to apply the provisions of Act XXXV of 1858 (The Lunatics Act) and Act XXXVI of 1858 (The Lunatic Asylums Act) to the cantonment of Secunderabad.

2. As there is no Asylum at Secunderabad, I have to inquire whether the Government of Madras has any objection to the Asylum at Madras being declared to be an Asylum to which a magistrate or judge exercising jurisdiction within the limits of the cantonment of Secunderabad may send lunatics or any class of lunatics as to an Asylum established under the Act for the division in which his jurisdiction is situated.

3. I would add that few lunatics are likely to be sent, and that it appears that one or two have occasionally been sent without any formal arrangement to the Asylum at Madras.

ORDER—dated 13th August 1890, No. 1346, Judicial.

The Resident in Hyderabad will be informed that, so long as accommodation is available, this Government has no objection to the arrangement proposed in his letter, provided that all charges incurred on account of the lunatics sent to the Madras Asylum are met from Imperial funds.

Dated Hyderabad Residency,

23rd July 1890.

SIR,

I have the honor to state that it has been found necessary to apply the provisions of Act ~~XXXX~~ of 1858 (The Lunatics Act) and Act ~~XXXX~~ of 1858 (The Lunatic Asylums Act) to the Cantonment of Secunderabad.

2. As there is no Asylum at Secunderabad I have to enquire whether the Government of Madras has any objection to the Asylum at Madras being declared to be an Asylum to which a magistrate or judge exercising jurisdiction jurisdiction within the limits of the Cantonment of Secunderabad may send lunatics or any class of lunatics as to an Asylum established under the Act for the division in which his jurisdiction is situated.

3. I would add that few lunatics are likely to be sent, and that it appears that one or two have occasionally been sent without any formal arrangement to the Asylum at Madras.

I have the honor to be,

For Order.
 In G.O. 23 May 90. N^o 881. Govt declined to receive lunatics from Cochin, & in G.O. 12 July 90. N^o 1168 from Burma; but in the first case, the lunatics were not British subjects & in the second case they were very numerous.
 The case of Secunderabad is different - inasmuch as but few lunatics are likely to be received & they probably will be British subjects. We have in fact been accepting lunatics with question of Secunderabad letters.
 On the whole, therefore, it is submitted that the Resident's request should be complied with. It is true that the Asylum is at present nearly full, but further accommodation has been ordered to be provided. Imperial ought, however, to bear the cost of any lunatics accepted.

11/8.
 I submit that it would be safer to ask the Resident to state what lunatics he is likely to be sent usually. The Madras Asylum is full and there are numerous lunatics in jails awaiting treatment.

The Res^t can say quite a large number will be sent. If from any cause it is not possible to send more to Res^t let him send any more.
 Imperial must pay the bill.
 We may think wisely with the request -
