IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT MADRAS.

Wednesday, the twenty-third day of July,

One thousand eight hundred and eighty-nineteen.

PRESENT:—

The Honourable Sir, Arthur J. H. Collins, Knight, Chief Justice.

The Honourable Mr. Justice Weir.

Referred Trial No. 24 of 1890.

Mutha Sanyal Prisoner.

Trial referred by the Court of Session of the Salem Division for confirmation of the sentence of death passed upon the said Prisoner in Case No. 23 of the Calendar for 1890.

CRIMINAL APPEAL No. 212 of 1890.

Appeal by the Prisoner against the said Sentence.

This case coming on for hearing, the Court delivered the following Judgment—We can see no reason to doubt the propriety of the conviction in this case. Two women, 1st and 2nd witnesses, whose evidence there is no reason for disbelieving, saw the accused murder his wife, the deceased Kachal, by severing her her head from her body. The accused was shortly afterwards seen running off and some time later in the day was found concealed in a Chalam field.

There is some evidence of previous quarrels between accused and the deceased (6th and 7th witnesses evidence). But there is no evidence of any quarrel or provocation at the time immediately preceding the murder. At the trial before the Sessions Court the accused's counsel dispensed with two of witnesses whom the accused had named before the committing Magistrate.

The Sessions Judge however, consider, set out the evidence very fairly and fully and we

1102
We can see no reason for differing from the conclusion arrived at by him, nor for refraining from confirming the sentence of death.

We accordingly confirm the conviction and sentence and dismiss the appeal.
