For

The District Magistrate of Tayora Tillam.

Mahazirnamah submitted by the undersigned Malayans of Combeconum Town.

(I) There is a rumour in the Town that the paddy bays of Arumagachetty and others in the town of Combeconum have been looted out on the 2nd instant, and further proceedings in connection therewith are quite mistakably going on.

(II) The said Arumagachetty and other paddy merchants in the town with a view to sell paddy at an enormously high rate shut up their bays on the 1st and 2nd instants, and raising the price of paddy from 1 rupee 4 annas to 2 rupees the hungry population consisting of several thousands of persons in this town have great mortification had in purchase paddy at such by the avaricious paddy dealers. This is the feeling In that respect the Joint Magistrate, the Jailor and the Submagistrate were present to see that no breach of the peace takes place.

(III) While the matter stands so some of the Municipal Councillors, Schoolmaster, and others seeing that the authorities do not submit to their wishes have written to the papers.

(II) Can the strength of this rumour, Arumgachetty and others have extorted from the innocent and have disgraced many by inducing the police to charge them.

We therefore beg that these atrocities may be ordered to be put a stop to and protection rendered to us.

We beg to remain yours
Sincerely.

Handwritten text in Tamil script, covering the left page of the manuscript. The text is dense and appears to be a continuous narrative or a collection of related entries. There are some large, stylized characters or symbols interspersed within the text, possibly indicating section breaks or specific topics. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear.

Handwritten text in Tamil script, covering the right page of the manuscript. The text continues from the left page or represents a separate section. It includes several lines of text, some of which are written in a more formal or official style, possibly indicating a signature or a specific declaration. The handwriting is consistent with the left page, suggesting a single scribe or a closely related group of scribes.

To W. A. Hapell Esq.

Collector and Magistrate of Tanjore

The humble mahazar of the undersigned citizen of Annamachetty

- (1) Rumour afloat by some in this town that the authorities were inattentive of the looting which took place on 22nd inst.
- (2) Had such looting taken place in reality, while the said Annamachetty and other paddy merchants are men of large resources not one of them ventured to immediately to complain against the alleged looters.
- (3) The population of this town including its suburbs comes up to between 100 and 200 thousands of people seven eighths of this population are exceedingly poor.
- (4) In this town except Annamachetty the rest of the paddy dealers possess very small capital. The said Annamachetty having advanced money to the mirasidars of the adjoining villages and having bought up all the other dealers had stored up about fifty or fifty thousand of paddy with a view to sell them at a time of scarcity and as such having gained over all the paddy dealers in the town attempted to sell at the rate of 2 rupees a colam at the 1st & 2nd inst. when the hungry people began to flock in front of the paddy bazaar. The authorities and the gentry of this town seeing the opportunity rising of the paddy proposal to sell paddy at a reasonable rate and while people have been regularly and peacefully buying paddy some of the bigwigs of the town seeing that the authorities do not act up to their regular began to have correspondence with the paddy dealers representing facts which have not really transpired at the time.
- (5) Thus emboldened the said Annamachetty began to complain against persons indiscriminately as he chose and lodged complaints against the innocent purely out of pecuniary motive and having exported money promising to expatriate them from his place charges. This is the actual looting now going on in the town.
- (6) When your honour was down here last time, some of us tried to represent the true state of facts occurred on the 22nd inst. unfortunately we were unable to do so and we now beg that your honour will be graciously pleased to avert false prosecutions and extortion as well as to secure from unwarrantable prosecution and conviction.

We beg to remain
your honours

Most obedient and loyal citizens of Kumbakonam

1. The District Magistrate of Bangalore has been informed that the people of the village of Ballari are discontented with the Government and are spreading rumours that the Government are going to take away their land.

2. The Mahajan submitted by the undersigned Mahajans of Ballari on the 1st inst.

There is a rumour afloat that as if the paddy fields of the village of Ballari and others in this town were looted on the 2nd inst. and further proceedings are being taken going on in connection there with.

3. In fact, there is no other looting than the plundering of the paddy fields of Ballari. The price of paddy is after a long time from one Rupee four annas to two Rupees eight annas paddy which was stored by said village in anticipation of a scarcity. Such a paddy was not sold for the people on the 2nd inst.
the 2nd inst. purely to increase the price.

4. The Sub-collector, the District Magistrate, the District Magistrate, and the District Magistrate are all present at the spot to avert any danger or riot.

5. Some of the Municipal Councillors School Masters and Kaskals who are discontented with the Government for not acting up to their wishes are spreading rumours through the news papers as if a riot was going to take place.

had taken place on the 2nd.

5 Taking advantage of this rumour, the said Annamachari and others have extorted money from the innocent and have disgraced some respectable men by inducing the police to charge them.

We therefore pray that these atrocities may be ordered to be put a stop to.
