MADRAS ACT No. III OF 1889.

PASSED BY THE GOVERNOR OF FORT ST. GEORGE IN COUNCIL.

[Received the assent of the Governor on the 16th November 1889 and of the Governor-General on the 23rd December 1889.]

An Act to provide for the prevention and control of Nuisances outside the Town of Madras.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Act XXIV of 1859 and to consolidate and improve the law relating to nuisances in places outside the Town of Madras: It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Towns Nuisances Act, 1889.

Local extent.

(2) Sections 1 and 2 of this Act extend to the whole of the Presidency of Fort St. George. The remaining sections extend to all towns in the said Presidency which may have been or may hereafter be declared to be municipalities under Madras Act IV of 1884, or other Act of the same nature for the time being in force; and the Governor in Council may from time to time by notification in the Fort St. George Gazette extend such sections or any part or parts thereof permanently or for a time or for specified occasions only, from such date as may be specified in the notification, to any other local area in the Presidency of Fort St. George, outside the limits of the Town of Madras, and may cancel or modify any such notification.

Enactments repealed.

2. The enactments mentioned in the schedule hereto annexed are repealed to the extent specified in the third column thereof.

Penalty for certain offences in public street.

3. Whoever in any public street, road, thoroughfare or place of public resort commits any of the following offences shall be liable on conviction to fine not exceeding fifty rupees

Drunkenness, or riotous or indecent behaviour.

(12) Whoever is found drunk and incapable of taking care of himself, or is guilty of any riotous, disorderly or indecent behaviour.

Forfeiture of gaming instruments, &c.

In case of conviction being had for an offence under clause (10) of this section, the instruments of gaming and money employed or displayed for the purposes of gaming shall be liable to forfeiture under orders of the Court.

Neglecting to fence in well, tank, &c.

4. Whoever neglects to fence in or protect any well, tank or other dangerous place or structure, or,

Causing offensive matter to run from house, &c.

whoever causes any offensive matter to run from any house, factory, dungheap or the like into the street—

shall be liable on conviction to fine not exceeding fifty rupees or to imprisonment of either description which may extend to one month.

Penalty for cruelty to animals.

5. Whoever cruelly beats, ill-treats, tortures, or drives, rides, or otherwise uses any animal in an unfit state to be so driven, ridden or used, or causes any animal to be cruelly beaten, ill-treated, tortured, or to be driven, ridden or used when unfit to be driven, ridden or used, shall be liable on conviction to fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to imprisonment of either description not exceeding one month, or to both.

Penalty for opening, &c., common gaming-house.

6. Whoever opens, keeps or uses or permits to be used any common gaming house, or conducts or assists in conducting the business of any common gaming house, or advances or furnishes any money for gaming therein, shall be liable on conviction to fine not exceeding five hundred rupees or to imprisonment of either description not exceeding three months, or to both.

Penalty for being found gaming in common gaming-house.

7. Whoever is found gaming or present for the purpose of gaming in a common gaming house shall on conviction be liable to fine not exceeding two hundred rupees or to imprisonment of either description not exceeding one month; and any person found in any common gambling house during any gaming or playing therein shall be presumed to have been there for the purpose of gaming.

C. N. 273

Police may arrest without warrant on view of offence.

8. Any Police officer may arrest without a warrant any person committing in his view any offence made punishable by this Act.

Magistrate, &c., may grant authority to enter common gaming-house.

9. If any Magistrate, other than the Head of a village, or officer of Police not below the rank of Assistant Superintendent, has reason to believe that any enclosed place or building is used as a common gaming house, he may by an order in writing give authority to any Police officer above the rank of a constable to enter, with such assistance as may be found necessary, any such enclosed place or building, and to arrest all persons found therein and to seize all instruments of gaming and all moneys and securities for money and articles of value reasonably suspected to have been used or intended to be used for the purpose of gaming which are found therein, and to search all parts of such enclosed place or building and also the persons found therein.

Destruction of stray dogs.

10. The District or Sub-Divisional Magistrate may from time to time cause to be notified by beat of drum or otherwise that dogs found straying within certain limits will be destroyed, and dogs found straying within such limits after such notification may be destroyed by any person in such manner as the District or Sub-Divisional Magistrate may from time to time direct.

Act to form part of General Police Act.

11. Sections 3 and 4 of this Act shall be read with, and form part of, Act XXIV of 1859.

The Towns Municipalities Act III of 1889 was published in the Port Saint George Gazette dated the 14th Instant.
and by Sec: which applies to the whole Presidency, section 48 of the Police Act 24 of 1859 is repealed. There is no specific direction as to the date from which the repeal should take effect and in the absence of such it is understood to take effect from the date of the publication of the Act. No formal notification is required for extending Act III of 1889 to Municipal Towns and Nuisances Cases arising therein are accordingly tried under it. The question now is whether Nuisances Cases arising within other Local Limits where the Section 48 of the Police Act was in force should be Charged under the new Act. The old Act is repealed and the Government has not yet issued a notification as required by Section 1 of the new Act extending the provisions Contained in Sections 3 to 11. I have the honor therefore to request that the Government will be pleased to issue a general notification extending the whole of the new Act to all Localities where Section 48 of the Police Act was in force on the 14th January 1890

Sir,

In forwarding for your perusal a special police report dated 25th ultimo received by me from the Station House Officer, Gudalur, I have the honor to point out that Madras Act III of 1889 under existing rules will not apply (except so far as Sections 1 and 2 are concerned) to Gudalur.

2. My eighteen months' experience of the division has made it clear to me that Gudalur, Devala and Pandalur are the places to which the Act proposed above ought to apply in its entirety.

3. The Police report mentioned above relates only to the practice of gambling, a custom which is so prevalent that I am aware of Chiefs and Sons-in-Government employ having been seen gambling openly in public thoroughfares.

4. There is no need for me to comment upon the advisability of introducing the legislative enactments relating to sanitary matters and obstructions. You yourself have lately had an opportunity of observing the prevalence of these offences.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedt. servant,
H. Wise
Acting Head Assistant Magistrate,

Submitted to Government for Judicial Department.

2. The District Magistrate fully Concurs with the recommendation made by the Head Assistant Magistrate in the foregoing letter and requests that a Notification extending the provisions of Madras Act III of 1859 to Gudalur Devala and Nundalur in S. Wynaad, may be ordered to be published in the Fort Saint George Gazette

3. He would further also recommend the inclusion of Kotagiri in the Notification referred to in para 2. Kotagiri is not a Municipality but subject to the Police Act XXIII of 1859 now repealed was by Act to it. The reasons advanced by the Head Assistant Magistrate for introducing the new Act into the Wynaad seem to apply with equal force to Kotagiri Town and Station.

For Orders.

As Act III of 1889 contains no provision mentioning the time at wh. it shall come into operation, it will take effect only from such date as the Governor in Council may notify by publication in the Fort St George Gazette (Sec 5 Madras Act I of 1867). A Notification fixing the date has now therefore to be issued.

By section II of the new Act, sec 48, Act XXIV of 1859, as amended, is repealed, & in the absence of any clause keeping alive the notifications issued under that section, all such notifications become void, & a fresh start has to be made under the new Act.

This extends primarily to all municipalities under Act IV of 1884 (Madras). But the provisions of sec 48, Act XXIV of 1859 had been applied to many other places or towns wh. have not been constituted municipalities. A list of such places & towns could, no doubt be compiled in the Office; but to do so would take a long time, and there would be the great objection that it would not be known whether it was still desirable to extend the Act to such places, whether it should be extended permanently, temporarily, or for specified occasions. No list at present exists.

A list has been prepared of all Kasbas of Tahsildars & Dy. Tahsildars showing which are Unions & which are not. The list also shows what Unions there are wh are not Kasbas. A search can be made in previous Notifications for the particulars as to such places as are ~~are~~ Kasbas but are not Unions & particulars as to such places as are both Kasbas & Unions can be obtained from the L & M. Dept's notifications.

It will be seen, however, that there will still be many places, like Ranipet & Sholinghur in N. Arcot, where the Union is not a Kasba & where the repealed section is probly. in force.
If the Honble Member thinks that the repeal of the section in such places can be tolerated until information is submitted by Dt. Magts. for any extension of the Act (beyond Municipalities & Kasbas) the Act might be brought into force fr. the first of April or March next, the necessary notifn. being at once prepared in the offices. Otherwise Dt. Magts. should be called on for a complete list of places to wh. the Act should be extended. As it will be necessary in any case to call on all Dt. Magts. for a list of places other than Kasbas to wh. the Act should be extended; and as the repeal of the existing law in places like Sholinghur - where there is a Bench - or where the existing section has long been in force, will cause far more misunderstanding and inconvenience than allowing the existing law to remain in force a few months longer, it is submitted that the latter course should be followed & a complete list called for fr. all Dt. Magts. to be submitted not later than the 30 April next.

Lists should be called for when the present two summaries are dealt with.

1. Very well. It will take at least a year, but is can't be helped.
I suppose. Ranipet & Sholinghur are about the only two Special Limits for the purpose as to temporary Extensions places.
They could wait.

2. In calling for lists say that all unions which are Kasbas may be included as of course but for other Kasbas & towns or magisterial villages Commissioners must be given, some to define the limits. Any place where Act 48 is not in force & which is not a Kasba or within 5 miles of a Kasba must be brought up separately.

Note for Honble Member.

This draft is submitted for approval. It does not follow H.M.'s Note, if its meaning is rightly understood. It is respectfully submitted that it would not be to apply the Act to "all unions wh are ausbas", while not applying it to all ausbas wh are not unions. H.M.'s Note, para 2, prob. only referred to the nature of the particulars of the local areas wh wd be needed. If the draft is wrong, & the orders of Govt are noted, it will be amended.

I don't understand this remark but the draft is all right

Order, 10th Feb/90. No 230.

As Madras Act III of 1889 contains no clause fixing the time at which it shall come into force, the provisions of sec. 5 of the Madras General Clauses Act 1867 apply, & the Act will not take effect pending the issue of a Notification bringing it into operation.

2. Before that Notification is issued, it is desirable that it should be determined to what local areas the Act is to be applied. It will be observed that, under clause (2) of section 1, it extends in the first instance to all Towns which are or may be created Municipalities under Madras Act IV of 1884. The Govt. considers that it may hopefully be extended to the headquarter stations of all Tahsildars and Deputy Tahsildars, and its extension to other places which are Unions under the Local Boards Act 1884 and which either possess a Bench of Magistrates or which are within 5 miles of a Magistrate's Court should be considered. The Govt will not be prepared to extend the Act to any place which does not fulfil the last mentioned condition except for specified occasions or periods, such as festivals, during wh. a Magt will be present. Any Proposal to apply the Act to any place wherein sec 48, Act XIV of 1859 is not in force & which is neither the headquarters of a Magt or Bench nor within 5 miles of such headquarters should be separately submitted.

and when such an Union should apply to union limits. It may also be extended

3. Subject to this exception, lists should be at once prepared by all Dt Magts & submitted to Govt showing the local areas to wh it is proposed that Madras Act III of 1859 should be extended. In regard to Unions, the necessary details will be forthcoming from the notifications under the Local Boards Act, but in other cases the names of villages must be shown. These lists should be submitted not later than the 1st of June next.*

4. In regard to the Letter of the Dt Magt, Ganjam, No 10039, dated 25 Dec 1889, it is observed that the distance betw: Varanasy & the nearest Magl Court is not reported. This omission should be supplied.
