To
The Honble the Chief Secretary to Government
Through

The Chief Assistant
Honble Sir,

I respectfully beg to represent that I have been employed as a Telephone clerk attached to the Chief Secretary's Telephone Exchange for more than a year and I believe I have rendered every satisfaction to my Superior officers, & my services do not count for nothing as the appointment is a temporary one. I earnestly pray that, if there is no objection, my appointment may be made permanent and addition to those borne in the office establishment list of the Chief Secretary to the Government.

Government.

and charity I shall ever feel thankful.

I beg to remain,
Yours truly,
your most obedient servant
E. J. Threlkeld

clerk in charge
Telephone Exchange

Det. from the Telephone Clerk of 5th May, 1890.

For order of the C.S.

There is some reason in this application.

The petitioner belongs to a class of persons who are paid by the Telephone Dept. at the cost of the Government's Public funds. What are called 'vacancies' are made by that Dept.
& applied towards
paying the petitioner.
If the employment on which he is engaged were of a temporary kind, he would have certainly no pension, but it cannot really
be called temporary.
There will, it is pretty certain, always be telephonic communication between the Secty. Office & others, alike at Madras and at the little. This might send capacity for the telegraph department will not confirm him in such a position because he is only a clerk & has not proved and is not required to pass the tests belonging to the dept. He is really in the post office establish.

 the office establish.
 as the ground
 that it is reasonable to allow persons in continuous employ to establish a title to pension at the end of their service.
 It is considered he should be confirmed retrospectively & pensioned & establish such a claim.
 Perhaps in the first instance, a copy of his petition might be sent to the Sup. of Telegraphs for further report whether the facts of the case are as stated above.

 further remarks.

1. It is understood that persons employed on such duties as the petitioner cannot be taken forward to confirmation in the Telegraph Dept.
2. Possibly, as the pay and allowances of the petitioner although disbursed by the Telegraph Dept^{re} are debited against Provincial funds, there may be grounds for his confirmation as an additional Secretariat clerk.

 In that case Provincial funds would be liable to bear the pension charges on the petitioner's retirement.

The undersigned would however be glad to learn the result of the news on the general question of the position of the telephone clerks attached to the Secretariat & other offices.

For orders

There are two Temporary Telephone clerks attached to the Central Exchange Madras, one of them (the applicant) accompanies Govt to Botacannudi and draws Rs 40 while there, and Rs 25 while in the plains: He holds a temporary appointment in the Telegraph dept, and the Superintendent Madras Division explains that there is no prospect of his ever being confirmed in that dept, but that there is no objection to his being brought on the Chief Secretary's establishment, provided he continues to remain under the control of the local Telegraph officers, so far as the technical working of the telephones is concerned. This course is unobjectionable, and the proposal, if adopted, would ~~prove~~ ^{be a} great convenience to the Secretariat, as the services of the man would be ~~at times~~ ^{at times} available even ~~very~~ ^{very} available during the working hours.

hours - which at present is no the case. Provincial Services repay the full cost of these lines, including establishment charges to Imperial, and the only additional liability would be the pensionary charges, which would be trifling.
The cost will be debited to Civil Secretariats - other establishments, like that of the General record dept, which is common to all branches of the Secretariat.

The other Telephone clerk attached to the exchange may be considered to be entertained for the benefit of the other public offices (including Military) in the Presidency town, and need not be brought on the establishment of the Secretariat permanently. A special Telephone clerk on Rs 25 per mensem is permanently attached to the office of the Commissioner of Police, Madras.

to consider it
 I have not advocated any action as yet in regard to confirming the man - the notes
