GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

Read the following paper:

From W. S. GANTZ, Esq., Honourary Secretary, Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 20th May 1891.

At the annual general meeting of the above Society held at the Banqueting Hall on the 17th February last, His Excellency the Governor, as the Chairman of the meeting, intimated the possibility of Government complying with the oft-repeated requests of the Society for (a) full fines inflicted by the magistracy in cruelty cases being handed over to the Society, (b) bearing the cost of the Infirmary in Wallajah Road, Triplicane, which Government has been pleased to sanction.

2. Respectfully soliciting attention to my previous correspondence on this subject, I would again venture to ask the Government will be so good as to take these subjects into its early and favourable consideration and give the pecuniary help solicited.

From the Honourary Secretary, Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, dated 2nd July.

Order—dated 10th July 1891, No. 1369, Judicial.

The Government have sanctioned the disbursement to the Society of the full fines imposed by the Presidency Magistrates in cases where the agents of the Society have prosecuted for cruelty to animals. The Presidency Magistrates will therefore be authorized accordingly.

2. The Government is not prepared to undertake the whole cost of the Infirmary in the Wallajah Road, Madras, but will give the Society a fixed grant on account of it for 1891-92, this grant being renewable if the institution is properly managed and proves successful. The grant for 1891-92 will be fixed at Rs. 60 × 12 or Rs. 720.

FOR ORDERS.

The paper has been detained pending return of certain specimens from circulation.
The Society are

1) to direct payment to the Society of the full fines imposed by the Magistrate in London.

The present rule is that half the fines only are paid to the Society, this being in accordance with the 26th March, 1878.

2) to direct payment to the Society of the full fine is paid
the Society under the 26th October 1885 No. 726 Dr. Fin.

instead of undertaking the whole
cost, which would remove all incentive to more careful management.
I would give the Society a fixed sum for 1891-2, renewable if the institution is keeping in an improved condition.
The cost was estimated at £60 or £70 as a maximum. During 1890-1 the cost of the Society's expenses & improvements have already been given free. The Grant for 1891-2 may be fixed at £70.

(2) to relieve the Society of the whole cost of the expenses
for animals recently killed in the Wallopah Indras.
