GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From Colonel C. A. PORTEOUS, Inspector-General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 27th January 1893, No. 487.

Under the circumstances stated in the accompanying copies of letters * from the Superintendent of Police, South Arcot, I have the honour to request that the inspector's house at Kotakuppam and the outgate building at Govi near Mortandi may be handed over to this department. Rent will be recovered from the inspector who occupies the former and will be credited to Government, while the latter will be most useful for the outpost station.

ENCLOSURE.

From Colonel C. J. T. WHITLOCK, Superintendent of Police, South Arcot, to the Inspector-General of Police (through Deputy Inspector-General, Central Range), dated Cuddalore, 21st December 1892, No. 1124.

I have the honour to report that the Acting Collector of this district has informed me that the inspector's bungalow at Kotakuppam and the out-gate building at Govi near Mortandi Chavadi are to be disposed of under G.O., No. 22, dated 7th January 1892, as they are not required by the Salt and Abkari officers or by the Sayer Revenue officers for their use, and that if they are required for the use of this department the necessary sanction of Government should be obtained for their transfer.

The inspector's bungalow at Kotakuppam is reported to be more of a dwelling house. It is at present in the occupation of Inspector Mr. Barro with the permission of the Salt Department and no rent is paid by the inspector. The building can be utilized as the inspector's quarters and the usual rent recovered from him, and if not required by the inspector can be used as police station, as a private building has been rented for the purpose at Kotakuppam.

The hut at Govi is now occupied by the Mortandi taunah police, and is required for the custody of their arms.

Under the above circumstances, I request that the sanction of Government may be obtained for the transfer of the above buildings to this department.

From Colonel C. J. T. WHITLOCK, Superintendent of Police, South Arcot district, to the Assistant Inspector-General of Police, dated Cuddalore, 23rd January 1893, No. 47.

In reply to your memorandum, No. 19, dated 16th instant, I have the honour to state that the value of the Salt Inspector's quarters at Kotakuppam is reported to be about Rs. 250 and that there is difficulty in procuring private accommodation for the police inspector at that place.

The inspector is willing to pay the rent of the station-house (Rs. 4 per mensem) if he is allowed to remain in the quarters under reference and for which at present he pays no rent.

No. 264.

Referred to the Revenue Department for favour of information as to whether there is any objection to the buildings in question being transferred to the Police Department.
