From

A. G. CARDEN, Esq., M.A.,

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF JAILS,

To

THE Chief Secretary to Government.

Fort St George.

SIR,

Enclosures. 1-

[With reference to G.O 3rd March 1893, No 467, I have the honor to state that the new Jail Code will be issued as soon as possible.] The necessary revision has been carried out and the index is under preparation.

2. In the Appendix containing Forms, I have, subject to the approval of Government, added the form of Security bond printed in Appendix C to Doctors Walker and Lethbridge's Report. In the Code which was submitted to Government only the Penalty bond was printed, as the difference between the Security and Penalty Bond was not understood. I have since found that both are useful.

[3. Having to paragraph 5 of the G.O. under reply, I would suggest that the

Enclosure

edition may be raised from 200 to 250, and I enclose a distribution list for the approval of Government.] As regards

other provinces and non official visitors, I have already had several requests for copies of the Code. With regard to the stock proposed to be kept for sale at the Government Press, it will be remembered that the Tail Code forms part of the new Tail Test and that intending candidates may wish to purchase it. At the earliest, it will be two years before a fresh edition can be issued, as after the legislation contemplated by the Government of India is carried out, & some time will be spent in again revising the Code.

4. I further request sanction to print separately 320 copies of the portion of the Code which relates to Subsidiary Tails for ^{supply to} Officers in charge of Subsidiary Tails. There are now 305 of these institutions.]

I presume that the total number of copies which is tentatively placed at 9, required for all departments of Government, Governments of other provinces, and the Secretary of State, should be delivered at the Chief Secretariat for distribution, & I understand that I am to distribute the rest.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Rd. Gordon.

The distribution list of the old Code is put up. As a very large number was ^{then} printed an indiscriminate distribution appears to have been made. Mr. Carden's present list seems better drawn up. The following points are however submitted for consideration.

For the High Court only 2 are set down. Ten copies of the old Code were first given in June 1883 and then another 10 in the following month. Shouldn't the no.
for the High Court be raised?

The S. of Police was given 47 in 1883 for support as well, but only one is here allotted to him.

The Secy. of State got none in 1883. The 5 copies here set down may perhaps be allowed to stand.

Government of India

Only the Govt. of India
were furnished with copies in 1883. No other Govts got copies except the Colonial Secretary, Singapore, who received 3 copies in application.

It is submitted that the 20
copies set down for Govts of other Provinces may be distributed as follows:-

Govt. of India - 4
Bombay - 2
Bengal - 2
M.P. & C. - 2
Punjab - 2
Ch. Comm. Gen. Rs. - 1
Prome - 1
Assam - 1
Coorg - 1
Risht. Mysore - 1
Hyderabad - 1
Col. Secy. Singapore - 2

The Mysore General got 2 at first & then 20 in 1883.
Only 2 are set down against his name here.

Several collectors applied for additional copies of the old Code and as a large was available General Change

By Collectors and Tahsildars in charge of sub-jails also got copies. But Mr. Jackson proposes to meet the demand in this direction by printing all copies of the portion relating to sub-jails for supply to officers in charge of those jails.

The Resident in Travancore & Cochin got a copy last time and may be added to the present list.

Some additional names appear now which perhaps the Secy. of Jails thinks necessary to include. As regards the L. & M. S. they remember having only once made a reference to the Code in connection with sanitation in jails. Perhaps one copy may be given to the L. & M.

magnitudes down to Dy.

be enough as the hub pages in all come to 290 (Hub Rev. G.O. 14/9/19-

The J. G. may perhaps be told that all such magistrates whether in charge of salt trails or not should get a copy

FOR ORDERS.

It seems plain that the edition of 200 copies ordered in G.O 2/23/93, N° 467, will not be enough. Mr Cardew proposed an edition of 500 which seems much nearer the mark.

The I. G. now submits a list for the distribution of 250 copies but it does not seem a very satisfactory one. For example the I. G. of Police is allotted only 1 copy; in 1883 he got 47 & he will obviously need a good number for the Code contains a number of Rules which ^{concern} ~~are of~~ ^{are of} importance to the Police.

Accordingly a new distribution list based mainly upon that for the 1908 edition has been prepared in the office. The new list contemplates an edition of not fewer than 416 copies. In it provision is made for supplying every Magistrate not below the grade of Deputy Mag with a copy. Perhaps H. M. will regard this as unnecessary. If so, only those Sub-Divisional Officers who are also visitors need be supplied (this is what Mr. Cursons proposes); the total figure will then fall from 416.

* I don't think that some of the sections require copies - if they want to refer to the book they can see it at the table. By checking in the sections into the relation card he reduced it to two copies.

negotiations whether in charge of sub fails or not should get a co

307. It does not seem possible to reduce the edition below this figure.
 Mr. Caird's proposal to print separately 320 copies of the part of the Code relating to Sub-Tails may, it is submitted, be approved & he may be informed that the presumption in para. 5 of his letter is correct.

On reconsideration to Mr. Caird has come to the conclusion that the edition of the Tail Code should consist of 400 copies & they should be distributed as shown in the accompanying list. It will be observed that no copies have been allotted to non-official visitors; they will be frequently changed & can always see a copy of the Code at the Tail; consequently it is unnecessary to supply them. It will also be observed that all magistrates below the rank of Deputy will receive a copy.
 Mr. Caird's proposal to strike off 320 copies of the portion relating to Sub-Tails is approved. The presumption in para. 5 of his letter is correct.
