In paragraph 2 (3) of G.O., dated 15th February 1894, No. 373, Judicial, it was ruled that District Public Prosecutors would, in future, be re-imbursed only the actual expenses incurred by them on journeys from head-quarters.

2. The Government has, however, now resolved to direct that District Public Prosecutors shall receive for journeys by rail, by sea or river and by road the allowances admissible for officers of the second class under Chapter XLVIII of the Civil Service Regulations, Second Edition.
