High Court of Judicature,
Madras, 20th July 1894.

No 1981.

From

H.W. Foster Esquire Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras

To

The Honorable J. F. Price, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George.

Honorable Sir,

With reference to G. O. dated the 16th ult. No. 1477, Judicial, I am directed to point out that Mr. R. V. S. Sengaravelu Pillai does not possess the qualifications ordinarily required for appointment to the office of District Munsif under the rules recently issued in G. O. dated 9th May 1894, No. 317, Educational Schedule B, page 30. These rules apply expressly only to the regular

District Munsifs, and in the case of special appointments, at Cochin for example, - unqualified officers have been invested with District Munsif powers, but, unlike Cochin, Kollegal is a large and important charge and it seems to the High Court desirable that the rules should, as far as possible, be observed in this case.

2. The Judges feel especial hesitation to entrust extended Small Cause powers to the present Deputy Collector. It is not usual to recommend the grant of these powers to District Munsifs until they have gained some judicial experience and the late Deputy Collector, Mr. R. R. S. Gopalakrishnan Nayar, who was, as a special case, invested with Small Cause jurisdiction up to Rs. 200, was

was a Vakil of the High Court with considerable professional experience.

3. In these circumstances, I am directed to enquire whether the Government cannot arrange to post as Deputy Collector of Kollegal an officer who is qualified for the appointment of District Munsif.

I have the honor to be,
Honorable Sir,
Your most obedient servant

H. S. S.

Registrar

Every letter, whether printed or in manuscript, should be docketed and abstracted on the back; and the abstract should state clearly the purport of the letter and not merely its title subject.

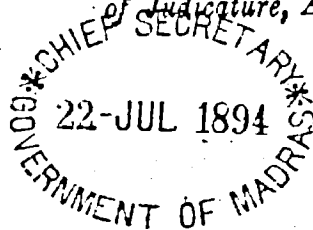

Enclosures and statements also, whether sent with letters, or merely under cover, should be numbered, docketed and abstracted. The headings of statements should be written in full to prevent mistakes. (G. O., 8th April 1838, No. 289, Public.)

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Recd Endorsement of the Judicial Department dated 24 July 1894 No. 1494.

Order thereon 27 July 1894 No 2929.

Re-transferred to the Judicial Department with the intimation that, as a portion of the leave granted to the permanent incumbent, Mr R. T. Gopalan Nair Aiyar, has already expired, and as the acting incumbent will remain in office less than two months longer, it is suggested that he should post another Deputy Collector for the charge of the division. The suggestion of the High Court will, however, be borne in mind in making similar appointments in future.
