 My Dear Bullenworth. 9 Oct 22

 I will put the matter before Runtins to-morrow and let you know what he says.
 It seems to me however that these bills of our official members of the Legislative Council should be drawn on the ordinary form of Gazetted Officer's bills and that they can draw double first class fare
 by rail and eight annas a mile by road, and their actual fares by steamer. What I am not clear about is whether their bills require countersignature. I fancy not, but do not act in this spirit.

The bills will be passed } T.D.C.
without any ~~to~~ being necessary - at least they should be, but you know how contrary a beast the average T.D.C. is.

Yours sincerely

William

RECEIVED

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

With reference to your Memorandum
No. 125 dated the 23rd of January 1894 enquiring whether under Article 1283 of the Civil Service Regulations non-official Members of the Legislative Council can claim

- (I) Halting allowance for days spent in Madras
in connection with the business of the Council
- (II) Travelling allowance for journeys to Madras
to attend meetings of Select Committees appointed to consider bills, I have the honor to state that the words "travelling allowance to and from the place of meeting" cannot in this case be interpreted to include "daily allowance" for halts. Non-official Members cannot therefore claim halting allowance for days spent in Madras

In regard to the second question

it appears to me that, as Select Committees are committees of the Legislative Council appointed for the purpose of doing work which could not be performed expeditiously at meetings of the full Council, such members of the Council as are appointed members of Select Committees can draw travelling allowance for journeys to Madras to attend Select Committee meetings.

My Dear Butterworth

There has been some delay in getting Rantzen's views and I have therefore been unable to answer earlier than Dec. 8th.

The Travelling Allowance Bills of our special members of the legislative Council should be drawn up in the form prescribed for bills of gazetted Officers. They should be signed by the member and countersigned by a Secretary or Under Secretary to Government.

On their countersignature they will be paid at their office or at any Treasury the member chooses to present them. No special G.O. in each case is necessary.

The special numbers are entitled to the ordinary allowances admissible
under Chapter ~~IX~~ VIII of the C.S.
Regulations to First-Class Officers.

Yours sincerely

William

Sir,

In sending herewith my travelling allowance bill, I have the honor to invite your attention to the fact that I have claimed halting allowance at Rs 5 per diem for my halts in Madras.

Under article 83 of the C. & P. Regulations, I am not quite sure that I can claim halting allowance but I cannot prove that no halting allowance was intended to be paid for the halts of non-official members in Madras. In view of our expenses and our rank (vide warrant of precedence) I think we should be allowed halting allowance at the rate of Rs 10 a day.

Travelling Allowance to Non-Official Members of the Legislative Council.

Communicating to all non-official additional members letter from the Accountant-General regarding the travelling allowance admissible to them under the Civil Service Regulations and the manner of drawing such allowance.

No. 22, LEGISLATIVE, 13TH FEBRUARY 1894.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Letter—from T. W. RAWLINS, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Legislative Department.
Dated—the 3rd February 1894.
No.—265.

With reference to your memorandum, No. 125, dated the 23rd of January 1894, enquiring whether, under article 1283 of the Civil Service Regulations, non-official members of the Legislative Council can claim—

(I) halting allowance for days spent in Madras in connection with the business of the Council, and

(II) travelling allowance for journeys to Madras to attend meetings of Select Committees appointed to consider Bills,

I have the honour to state that the words "travelling allowance to and from the place of meeting" cannot in this case be interpreted to include "daily allowance" for halts. Non-official members cannot, therefore, claim halting allowance for days spent in Madras.

In regard to the second question it appears to me that, as Select Committees are Committees of the Legislative Council appointed for the purpose of doing work which could not be performed expeditiously at meetings of the full Council, such members of the Council as are appointed members of Select Committees can draw travelling allowance for journeys to Madras to attend Select Committee meetings.

Order—No. 22, Legislative, dated 13th February 1894.

The Accountant-General's letter will be communicated to all non-official members of the Legislative Council. They will observe that no daily allowance is admissible, but that they are entitled to travelling allowance at the ordinary rates prescribed for officers of the first class in Chapter XLVIII of the Civil Service Regulations for journeys to and from Madras to attend meetings of the Council and of Select Committees.

2. The travelling allowance bills should be drawn up in the form prescribed for gazetted officers, should be signed by the Honourable Member concerned, and should be forwarded for countersignature to the Under Secretary to Government in the Legislative Department. When countersigned they will be payable at the office of the Accountant-General or at any mufassa treasury.
