GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From C. H. MOUNSEY, Esq., Collector and District Magistrate, Cuddapah, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 9th December 1893, Ref. on No. 1148-Magl.

In its order of the 6th ultimo, No. 2271, Government has approved of the rules framed by the High Court in regard to the inspection of records by police officers for certain specified purposes. The rules at present only permit inspection of the records, but are silent on the question whether any notes or extracts may be permitted to be taken by the inspecting officer.

2. As this question may arise in the future, the Superintendent of Police, whom I consulted on this point, is of opinion that there should be a definite ruling on the point. I beg to be favoured with the orders of Government as to whether a police officer can take copies or notes of records submitted to him in accordance with the new rules.

ORDER—dated 11th January 1894, No. 48, Judicial.

The District Magistrate's letter will be communicated to the Honorable the Judges of the High Court. It seems to Government obvious that an officer inspecting records under the rules can take extracts therefrom if he considers it necessary to do so.

JANUARY.

Inspection of Records of Criminal Courts.

Communicating to the Honorable the Judges of the High Court, with remark, letter from the District Magistrate, Cuddapah, enquiring whether under the rules for the —, a police officer can take copies or notes of records submitted to him.

9th January 1894
Col. H. Stanley, Secy. to Govt.
Madras
Dear Sir,
*I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 11th inst. regarding the above subject. The rules for the inspection of records of Criminal Courts are contained in the Criminal Procedure Code, Chapter IV, Section 173. Under this section, it is provided that a Magistrate may permit any person to inspect the records of any case in which he is acting as Magistrate, and to take copies of the same, or to make notes of the same, if he is satisfied that such person is entitled to do so. In the case of a police officer, it is further provided that he may be permitted to do so if he is satisfied that such officer is entitled to do so. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
 Yours faithfully,
 J. H. Stanley, Secy. to Govt.*
