From

PRESIDENCY MAGISTRATE,

John Mackell

To

W. E. J. Clarke Esq., Magistrate,
Madras.

Sir,

With reference to G. O. Judicial dated 23rd February 1894, No. 475, herewith returned, I have the honor to state that the three native accomplices of Gordon were placed before me on the 29th December last, the day this Court sat during the Christmas holidays. Being unable to proceed with the case owing to a pressure of other work, I adjourned it to the 19th January 1894 and admitted he accused to bail. On the latter day, Mr. Short, who appeared for the prosecution, applied for a further adjournment on the ground that the whereabouts of Gordon had been traced, and that his early arrest was a matter of certainty. As the charges against Gordon and his accomplices are triable exclusively by the High Court, and as I deemed it advisable that they should be committed together to stand their trial, should a prima facie case be

23rd as reported in Court.

be established against them, & peremptorily postponed the commencement of the inquiry to the 19th February 1894 for the arrest of Gordon.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. M. Markell.
