FOR ORDERS.

This is a reply to para. 4. of G.O.

1485M
12.9.95

The telegram does not say what course the Commis- have followed on para. 5. This does not, however, affect the immediate question at issue <sup>which is</sup> whether Mr. Ellis may now be granted the six weeks' priv. leave applied for in his letter read in the G.O. already referred to.

The only thing against granting the leave is the fact that it has not yet been settled who is to pay the privilege leave allowance.
The Asst. General thinks Govt. should pay a proportionate share (please see his letter in the same G.O.) This wd. require special sanction which is the matter to get. The Commis- are perhaps for the whole of it, in which case no trouble will arise. The Asst. General's office knows all about this case, & will <sup>perhaps</sup> raise the point at the next audit of the accounts. It is <sup>however</sup> submitted that the question may be left alone until some one raises it, that Mr. Ellis may now be granted his leave, which he wants very badly.

There seems to be nothing in any of the rules to make this course objectionable, & the 2nd Asst. Financial Dept., who knows them well cannot discover that they prevent the grant of leave at once.
