until it could find a better site. The Quahawk has since signified his intention to carry out the improvements suggested by the Sanitary Commissioner - but as it would take some months before he could meet those suggestions in entirety, and as the Municipal Vegetable Market has already been leased out for the current year, the Council will find its way to grant a license to the Quahawk next year provided he carries out all the improvements suggested by the Sanitary Commissioner before the end of December next and provided that he consents to pay £250 as the license fees for the next year, that being far below the average annual market fees realized during the past 3 years. The Quahawk will also be required not to collect any fees over and above the rates levied by the Council, viz, 3 pence per basket or a head load per diem and two annas per handy load per diem.
